- Snow village in Levi, with a giant igloo, ice sculptures and a hot drink at the ice bar
- Reindeer sleigh ride at a farm in Finnish Lapland
- Guided bus departure in search of the northern lights
- Husky sled safari through the Lapland wilderness, with thermal clothing included
- Visit to Santa Claus Village, with a meeting with Santa Claus himself

Day by day

1

DAY 1

HELSINKI

Arrival in Helsinki, the capital of Finland. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

HELSINKI

Breakfast. Panoramic visit of the Finnish capital, also known as the White City of the North. We pass the Orthodox Trinity Church, a remnant of Russian rule; the Senate Square and the Temppeliaukio Kirkko, a Lutheran church with a circular plan carved into the rock, whose dome takes the shape of a giant spiral of copper strips. Bright with lights and wrapped in a soothing darkness, Helsinki offers a wide variety of interesting activities in the coldest months of the year. Free afternoon. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

HELSINKI-LEVI (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to Helsinki airport. Departure on a regular flight to Kittilä. There, in Finnish Lapland, a dreamlike white winter landscape awaits. Transfer to the hotel and check-in. In the afternoon, we discover the magical world of snow and ice. We visit the famous snow village, with its giant igloo full of beautifully decorated rooms, ice sculptures and an ice restaurant. After the visit, a hot drink at the ice bar is included. With a bit of luck, you may also see the northern lights before returning to Levi by bus. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

LEVI

Breakfast. Bus ride to the reindeer farm, where we feel the authentic Sami atmosphere. Reindeer herding was an important activity in the development of Lapland. Reindeer are semi-wild animals: they live freely in the forests of Lapland. A few times a year they are gathered to be sorted and counted. At the farm, the reindeer herder will have carefully selected a group of reindeer trained for the sleigh. Once you settle into the sleigh, the reindeer take you on a ride of about 1 kilometer. Enjoy a cup of coffee at the farm and hear stories about the reindeer before returning to Levi by bus. In the late afternoon, we set off by bus in search of the majestic northern lights. Accompanied by an experienced guide, we will try to spot this unique phenomenon. With some luck, we may witness this incredible spectacle of nature. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

LEVI

Breakfast. Dog sled experience. This sporty safari takes you into the heart of Lapland's wilderness, with the help of our teams of dogs. Before the tour begins, you receive instructions on how to control the sled. After the safari, you enjoy a hot berry juice and hear fascinating stories about these lovable huskies. Round-trip transfers are by bus. Free afternoon. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

LEVI

Breakfast. Visit to Santa Claus Village, where the elves also live, a well-known and appealing tourist destination based on tales and mythology, full of fun activities and open all year. The charm of the Elf Experience Village lies in its stories, fairy tales, culture, fantasy and mythology. It is nature's amusement park. This destination combines two major travel trends: nature tourism and cultural tourism. Finally, a surprise awaits us: Santa Claus himself visits and greets us. Free afternoon. Optional snowmobile safari for beginners can be booked. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

LEVI-HELSINKI (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport for the regular flight to Helsinki. Arrival and transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

HELSINKI

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. End of our services.
