- Dubrovnik, a UNESCO site, with the Rector's Palace, the Cathedral and Minceta Tower
- Medjugorje and the Old Bridge of Mostar, on the way to Sarajevo
- Sarajevo with the Gazi Husrev-beg Mosque and the Baščaršija bazaar, and the historic center of Zagreb

Day by day

1

DAY 1

LJUBLJANA

Arrival at Ljubljana airport and transfer to the hotel. The guide will be at the hotel from 19h. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

LJUBLJANA / POSTOJNA / BLED / LJUBLJANA

Breakfast and departure for Postojna, famous for its stalactite caves. The visit is made aboard a tourist mining train, passing through galleries such as the Ballroom and the Paradise. The highlight is the Concert Hall. Continuation to Bled, whose lake and small island form the most representative image of Slovenia. Return to Ljubljana and overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

LJUBLJANA / ZADAR / SPLIT

Breakfast and departure for Zadar, which in the 17th century gained great prestige as the administrative center of Byzantine Dalmatia. On arrival, visit to the Roman Forum and the church of St. Donatus, a 9th-century building. Then continuation to the main city of the Dalmatia region, Split. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

SPLIT

Breakfast and a visit to Split, a city that grew out of the monumental Diocletian's Palace, built by the Roman emperor. During the walk, we see the Vestibule of the Palace, the Peristyle, the bell tower of the Cathedral of St. Domnius and the Temple of Jupiter, all on the Adriatic waterfront. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

SPLIT / DUBROVNIK

Breakfast and departure for Dubrovnik, along the Dalmatian coast, with panoramic views of the Adriatic islands. On arrival, a visit to the city, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. We see the 14th-century Franciscan Church, the Rector's Palace, the Cathedral and the Dominican Monastery. Also of note is the Minceta Tower, one of the best-preserved medieval fortifications in Europe. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

DUBROVNIK

Breakfast and a free day to enjoy the city at your own pace or take an optional excursion to Montenegro, visiting some of its most picturesque towns and villages (not included). Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

DUBROVNIK / MEDJUGORJE / MOSTAR / SARAJEVO

Breakfast and departure for Bosnia and Herzegovina, with a stop in Medjugorje, a pilgrimage center known for the recent apparitions of the Virgin Mary. Continuation to Mostar, a former capital marked by the Bosnian war (1992-1995) and famous for its Old Bridge, rebuilt in 2004. Its medieval streets reflect the historic coexistence of several cultures and religions. We continue to Sarajevo, the capital of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The main religions of the region live side by side there, with the seats of the Muslim Grand Mufti, the metropolitan bishop of the Serbian Orthodox Church and the archbishop of the Catholic Church. Sarajevo is also known for the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria in 1914, an event that marked the start of the First World War. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

SARAJEVO

Breakfast and a visit to the city, which has great cultural diversity. Highlights include the Gazi Husrev-beg Mosque, with its stalactite ornamentation under the dome. Visit to the Bascarsija bazaar, a 15th-century market, to the Austro-Hungarian Quarter and to the Olympic stadium. Afternoon free for shopping or personal activities. Overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

SARAJEVO / ZAGREB

Breakfast and departure for Zagreb, the capital of Croatia. On arrival, a walk through the historic center, where the Government Palace, the Cathedral of St. Stephen and the Church of St. Mark stand out. Overnight stay.

10

DAY 10

ZAGREB

Breakfast and a free day. Option to take an optional excursion to Plitvice Lakes, one of the most impressive national parks in Europe (not included). Overnight stay.

11

DAY 11

ZAGREB

Breakfast and transfer to the airport. End of our services.
