Documents and notes

Documents required for the trip

- ☐ Valid passport: It must be valid for at least 6 months from the date of entry into the country and have at least one completely blank page for stamps.
- ☐ International Certificate of Vaccination against Yellow Fever (CIVP): Issued free of charge by Anvisa. The vaccine must be taken at least 10 days before departure.
- ☐ Attention on arrival: Before going to the immigration line, Brazilians must go to the Health Control desk at the airport to present the certificate and receive a clearance stamp/sticker.
- ☐ Thailand Digital Arrival Card (TDAC): This is the mandatory electronic form that replaced the old paper cards. It must be completed online on the official Thai government website (tdac.immigration.go.th) up to 3 days (72 hours) before arrival. On it, you upload your details and your vaccination certificate. It is free. Our guide will provide guidance locally.

  Passengers of other nationalities must check with their embassies or consulates about entry visa requirements. Please check with your travel consultants the protocols and documents required for this destination at the time of travel.

Travel insurance and trip cancellation insurance

Travel insurance is mandatory. Your TWTS consultant will recommend the right coverage, including cancellation insurance (check the policy). Buy it when you book the package: cancellation insurance is only valid if purchased together with the trip.

Important notes

- We reserve the right to modify and/or cancel the program for reasons beyond our control.
- We recommend purchasing the mandatory travel health insurance for your peace of mind. Ask your TWTS consultant about the insurance that best meets your needs.
- Prices are shown in US dollars or euros and will be converted into reais at the exchange rate of the payment date.
- Hotels, airline, planned flights and tours may be replaced by others of similar category due to force majeure.
- Seats are limited, and programs may sell out without prior notice.
- No bookings will be made without payment. See the terms and conditions.
