About the trip

16-day walk from Oviedo to Santiago de Compostela on the Camino Primitivo, with stages of 14 to 30 km. Luggage moves from hotel to hotel, and phone assistance is available 24 hours.

What you will experience

- Oviedo, capital of Asturias, with the Cathedral of San Salvador and the Holy Chamber
- Climb to the Palo pass, with a view of the Nisón Valley
- Descent to the Salime Reservoir dam and crossing of the Navia River
- Entering Galicia over the Alto do Acebo to A Fonsagrada
- Lugo and its Roman wall, a World Heritage Site, and Melide, where the route joins the French Way
- Monte do Gozo and Obradoiro Square, with a guided visit to Santiago and a tasting of Galician cheeses

Day by day

1

DAY 1

OVIEDO

Arrival in Oviedo and own transfer to the hotel or guesthouse. Rest of the day free. Accommodation. Our route starts in Oviedo, the capital of Asturias. The city, with a strong medieval character, surprises with a well-kept and well-preserved historic center, where the Gothic Cathedral of San Salvador and the Holy Chamber stand out.

2

DAY 2

OVIEDO-GRADO (25.2 KM/APPROX. 6 HRS / MEDIUM DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. We gather all our strength to start this beautiful challenge, which we will live over the next 15 days. This first stage, although not the hardest, already shows the toughness typical of this Camino. We start strong: 25 km separate us from today's destination. The route follows trails with frequent changes in elevation. The steepest climb is the one to Escampelo. Then we descend and follow the Nalón river to Peñaflor, to finally reach Grado. Accommodation.

3

DAY 3

GRADO-SALAS (22.1 KM/APPROX. 5 HRS / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. Today's stage is milder than the previous one. The route gives us a short break. With our batteries recharged, we set off for another day of walking. The hardest section is almost at the start: a short climb of about 300 meters to the Alto de Fresno. Up there, it is worth stopping to visit the sanctuary. After this stretch, the rest of the kilometers are easier. We cross the Narcea river toward Cornellana, where we follow a river again, this time the Nonaya, until we reach Salas. Accommodation.

4

DAY 4

SALAS-TINEO (19.8 KM/APPROX. 5 HRS / MEDIUM DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. This is one of the shortest stages in kilometers, but we must not lower our guard. Today's difficulty lies in the stage's changes in elevation. The biggest comes right after leaving Salas: we start the climb to La Espina, where we reach almost 700 meters. The rest of the stage has gentler, though frequent, changes in elevation. Today's maximum elevation gain is 800 meters, so once the Alto de La Espina is behind us, almost all the work is done. Then we pass through small villages such as La Pereda and El Pedregal, until we reach Tineo. Accommodation.

5

DAY 5

TINEO-POLA DE ALLANDE (27 KM/APPROX. 7 HRS / MEDIUM DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. A difficult stage awaits us, mainly because it is one of the longest on the route, but the effort is worth it. Ups and downs remain our most faithful companions, joined by forests, valleys and mountain landscapes cut by rivers, which make the effort a little lighter. The first kilometers from Tineo are uphill, followed by a gentle descent to Campiello. We continue on the path to Pola de Allande. Accommodation.

6

DAY 6

POLA DE ALLANDE-BERDUCEDO (17.5 KM/APPROX. 4 HRS, HIGH DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. We have walked for several days, we are used to this terrain and we understand why this Camino has a reputation as one of the toughest. So, even though we face the hardest stage of the whole route today, we will make it. It is also one of the most beautiful, which, as we said, makes the effort worth it. We have come this far, and now we cannot give up. We start with the most complicated climb of all, the ascent to Porto do Palo. Up there, the views of the Nisón Valley are our reward. Once the big obstacle of the day is behind us, we cover the rest of the kilometers to Berducedo, today's final point. Accommodation.

7

DAY 7

BERDUCEDO-GRANDAS DE SALIME (20.4 KM/APPROX. 5 HRS, MEDIUM DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. If the previous stage is known for its climbs, today we have a steep descent to the dam of the Salime Reservoir. There is no reason to worry, as it is not very difficult. After the descent and the crossing of the Navia river, only the last kilometers to Grandas de Salime remain. Accommodation.

8

DAY 8

GRANDAS DE SALIME-A FONSAGRADA (25.2 KM/APPROX. 6 HRS / MEDIUM DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. We use the last kilometers on Asturian soil to enter Galicia, over the Alto do Acebo, a long climb without major difficulties. As we change region, note that in Asturias the scallop shells mark the way by pointing with the narrow end, while in Galicia, although there are also shells along the Camino, the route is marked by yellow arrows. Apart from the climb, it is a pleasant stage that passes through small villages and rural areas, to today's destination, the first in Galicia, A Fonsagrada. Accommodation.

9

DAY 9

A FONSAGRADA-O CÁDAVO (24.3 KM/APPROX. 5 HRS / MEDIUM DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. Our first fully Galician stage. It will certainly not disappoint. Much of the route follows dirt roads, but the beauty of the landscape is remarkable all the same. The first part has few changes in elevation until Montouto, where a long descent begins. Once again, the highlight of the stage is a climb: the one to A Lastra. We continue a little further until we reach O Cádavo. Accommodation.

10

DAY 10

O CÁDAVO-LUGO (29.5 KM/APPROX. 7 HRS / MEDIUM DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. We face the longest stage of the whole Camino. The main difficulty is the number of kilometers in the day. Apart from the descent to Castroverde, it is a fairly flat stage. It is worth stopping to see the 14th-century fortress. We pass through several villages, such as Souto de Torres, Vilar de Cas and Gondar, always accompanied by the green landscapes typical of Galicia. At the end of the stage we reach Lugo, a city that preserves important traces of its Roman past. The wall, declared a World Heritage Site, the Baths and the Roman Bridge stand out. The city also offers a wide gastronomic variety, with tapas and wines. Accommodation.

DAY 11

LUGO-A PONTE DE FERREIRA (26.5 KM/APPROX. 7 HRS / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. Flat stage. Part of the route follows local roads, and the rest paved tracks. The hardest part is the number of kilometers today, but the changes in elevation are practically nil. Accommodation in A Ponte de Ferreira.

12

DAY 12

A PONTE DE FERREIRA-MELIDE (20 KM/APPROX. 5 HRS / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. With a strong rural character and some changes in elevation, this stage leads to Melide, the geographic center of Galicia and the point where we join the Camino Francés. We recommend taking the "Roman Way", a little shorter than the traditional one. Accommodation.

13

MELIDE-ARZÚA (14.1 KM/APPROX. 3 HRS / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. Again the kilometers are few, which lets us enjoy some of the charming villages along the way, such as Boente and Castañeda, until we reach Arzúa, a famous cheese-producing town. Accommodation.

14

ARZÚA-O PEDROUZO (19.3 KM/APPROX. 5 HRS / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. A short and quiet stage, to take in everything experienced on the Camino before arriving in Santiago the next day. Accommodation in O Pedrouzo.

DAY 15

O PEDROUZO-SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA (19.4 KM/APPROX. 4 HRS / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. Nerves on edge. Strange feelings. It is the last stage. We recommend leaving early to attend the pilgrim's mass, held at 12:00. First we reach Lavacolla and continue to climb Monte do Gozo, from where the long-awaited Cathedral can be seen in the distance. Finally, the Obradoiro Square and the well-earned personal satisfaction of having made it this far. Accommodation.

DAY 16

SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA

Breakfast. End of services.
