About the trip

Six days through eastern Canada, from Montreal to Niagara Falls, via Quebec City, Ottawa and Toronto. The itinerary includes guided city visits, a Thousand Islands cruise and a boat ride at the falls, with 5 breakfasts.

What you will experience

- Panoramic tour of Quebec, the oldest city in Canada, with the Citadelle and Laval University
- Guided tour of Montreal, with Mont Royal Park, Saint Joseph's Oratory and Old Montreal
- Stop at Parc Omega, with entry included, to see Canadian wildlife up close
- Visit to Ottawa, capital of Canada, with Parliament and the Supreme Court
- Cruise of about 1 hour through the Thousand Islands of the St. Lawrence River (May to October)
- Hornblower boat at Niagara Falls (May to October) or a visit to the Scenic Tunnels

Day by day

1

DAY 1

MONTREAL

Arrival in Montreal. Transfer to the hotel is arranged by the passenger. Rest of the day free. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

MONTREAL-QUEBEC CITY-MONTREAL

American breakfast. Today we leave for Quebec City and visit the historic city, the oldest in the country. Panoramic visit: Laval University, historic monuments, the Citadel and other points of interest. After lunch (not included), there is time to stroll around the city, and then we return to Montreal. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

MONTREAL-OTTAWA

American breakfast. See the best of Montreal on this sightseeing tour with a professional guide, a trip through time from French and English colonization to today. The panoramic visit starts in the English neighborhood of Westmount, passes Saint Joseph's Oratory and Mount Royal Park, with its spectacular view of the city; we walk through the park to the lookout at the mountain chalet (weather permitting; otherwise, we visit the Belvédère lookout). We continue along the Golden Square Mile: McGill University, the financial district, Canada Square and Mary Queen of the World Cathedral. Then we go to Old Montreal, passing Victoria Square and skirting the edge of the Old Port; next, we continue to Place d'Armes to visit Notre-Dame Basilica (entrance not included). We walk to city hall, where Jacques-Cartier Square, the tourist heart of Old Montreal, is located, with time for lunch (not included) before continuing to Ottawa. On the way, we stop at Parc Omega, where you can see Canadian wildlife up close. After the visit to Parc Omega, we continue to Ottawa. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

OTTAWA-TORONTO

American breakfast. We begin the visit to Canada's capital, passing Parliament (with the changing of the guard in summer), residential neighborhoods, the residences of the prime minister and the governor general, the ambassadors' residences, the Supreme Court and other points of interest. After lunch (not included), departure for Brockville, for a short cruise through the Thousand Islands of the St. Lawrence River. The popular Thousand Islands dressing was created in this region, and it is one of the areas of eastern Canada most loved by tourists. The cruise, of about 1 hour, offers panoramic views and information about the history, the legends and the local people. You can also see ships from all over the world in the narrow stretches of the St. Lawrence River, the longest freshwater channel in the world. Continuation by bus to Toronto. Arrival and overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

TORONTO-NIAGARA FALLS

American breakfast. In the morning, we start the city tour: city hall, the provincial Parliament, the University of Toronto, Yorkville (bohemian neighborhood), the Forest Hill residential area and the area around the famous CN Tower. We continue to Niagara, about an hour away; on the way, we visit the picturesque town of Niagara-on-the-Lake, the first capital of Canada. We drive through the Niagara wine region and begin the tour of the area with the floral clock. Hornblower boat ride (May to October) or visit to the scenic tunnels (October to May). Arrival and overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

NIAGARA FALLS

Continental breakfast. At the agreed time, transfer to the airport. End of our services.
