About the trip

Eight days across Saudi Arabia, from Jeddah to the holy city of Medina and the Nabataean site of Hegra in AlUla, ending in Riyadh. The itinerary includes guided visits and stops at museums, mosques and the Red Sea. The two domestic flights are not included.

What you will experience

- Medina, with the Prophet's Mosque from the outside, Mount Uhud and the Quba Mosque
- Dadan, with entry included, and Elephant Rock, in AlUla
- Nabataean site of Hegra (Madain Saleh), in AlUla, a UNESCO World Heritage Site
- Riyadh, with the National Museum, Masmak Fortress and the Al Rajhi Mosque
- Entry to Riyadh Boulevard, with the colored fountain show
- Jeddah, with the Corniche, the Beit Matbouli house and the floating Al Rahma Mosque, on the Red Sea

Day by day

1

DAY 1

JEDDAH

Arrival at Jeddah airport and, after border and customs formalities, transfer to the hotel. Welcome to Saudi Arabia! Jeddah, on the Red Sea, is the country's second city, with four million inhabitants. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

JEDDAH / MEDINA

Breakfast. Departure into the heart of Arabia: big highways cross deserts and mountains to the holy city of Medina, “the luminous city”. Arrival at midday, with a stop at a shopping mall for lunch. Medina is an imposing historic destination, one of the two holiest cities in Islam, which receives millions of pilgrims a year and was closed to non-Muslims until recently. Because it is a holy place, respect for the inhabitants and their beliefs and proper dress are required. Walk around the immense Prophet's Mosque (Al Masjid an Nabawi), a luminous mosque with 10 minarets and room for one million visitors, built by the Prophet himself, where he is buried. Visit to Uhud Hill, where the Prophet's forces faced the troops of Mecca. You can walk across the huge esplanade and climb the hill, but in silence and with respect for the hundreds of pilgrims nearby on any given day. At the Quba Mosque, in 622, the Prophet and his followers laid the foundation stone of what would be the first mosque in history, although the current building is more recent. From there, walk to the Ethiq garden and well, where the tribes of the region came out to greet the Prophet and his companions and give them water, newly arrived in Medina after the persecution in Mecca. At dusk, return to the outside of the Al Masjid mosque to see the thousands of people entering at prayer time and the lighting. Dinner. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

MEDINA / ALULA

Breakfast. Departure through stunning desert landscapes toward one of the most spectacular places in the world. On arrival, visit to Dadan (admission included), with an impressive necropolis whose tombs were carved into the mountainside, overlooking the city to the east. Visit to Elephant Rock, “Jabal Al Fil”, a 52-meter-high geomorphological formation shaped like an elephant. Dinner and overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

ALULA / TABUK

Breakfast. In the AlUla region, visit to the Nabataean archaeological site of Hegra (Madain Saleh), “the other Petra”, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with rock-cut tombs in a mysterious desert setting. Lunch. Then free time to stroll through the shopping streets and the oasis. In the afternoon, departure for Tabuk, an active provincial capital and one of the oldest cities in the country, with free time to walk around the downtown shopping area. Dinner. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

TABUK / RIYADH (FLIGHT)

Early in the morning, transfer to the airport for the flight to Riyadh (flight not included). Arrival in Riyadh and city visit (the order of activities varies by time of year). Visit to the National Museum, the country's largest, with the history, culture and art of the Kingdom, and to Masmak Fortress, the city's old fort, whose interior helps explain the change the city has seen over the last century. Time for lunch and a stroll through the souks. Late in the afternoon, visit to the Al Rajhi mosque, the largest in Riyadh, with Andalusian architecture, including attendance at a prayer and an introduction to Islam. To end the day, transfer and admission included to Riyadh Boulevard, with attractions, international restaurants, shows and the colored fountain show. Free time to stroll and have dinner. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

RIYADH / JEDDAH (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. At the scheduled time, transfer to Riyadh airport for the flight to Jeddah (flight not included). Arrival in Jeddah. Transfer to the hotel and overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

JEDDAH

Breakfast. City visit, full of contrasts. Much of it is now being rebuilt to become a major world metropolis. Walk along the Corniche, with beautiful views, seaside mosques and leisure areas. View of the King Fahd Fountain, whose water jets rise more than 300 meters. Stop at the busy, picturesque fish market. Visit to the historic center and the interior of the elegant Beit Matbouli house, now a museum. Free time for lunch. Visit to the House of Islamic Arts, the first museum of its kind in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, specializing in Islamic arts. Then visit to the Al Rahma mosque, better known as the floating mosque, built on the shore of the Red Sea with pillars over the water. Stop also at the lively marina, near the Formula 1 circuit tracks. Return to the hotel. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

JEDDAH

Breakfast. At the indicated time, transfer to the airport. End of services.
