- Sacred Valley with Chinchero, Moray and Ollantaytambo, and Machu Picchu by train

Day by day

1

DAY 1

LIMA

Arrival in Lima. Welcome and assistance with the transfer to the hotel. At the agreed time, tour of the historic center of Lima, recognized by UNESCO as a World Cultural Heritage Site, to see the architectural relics of old Lima. The Santo Domingo convent opens the tour. Built when Lima was founded, it housed the University of San Marcos, the oldest in the Americas. Inside, the choir stands out, with the oldest choir stalls in the country, and the library, with 25,000 books, some printed in the 15th century, of incalculable historical value. The convent also holds the remains of Saint Martin de Porres, Saint John Macías and Saint Rose of Lima. After crossing the Plaza Mayor, the Government Palace and the Municipal Palace, enter the cathedral, with works of art from colonial Lima. Departure from the center to the Larco Museum, which presents the cultures that populated ancient Peru. Gold pieces, textiles and erotic ceramics are part of a collection that introduces the worldview of the ancient Peruvian. During the visit, the museum's storage is open to see the artistic expressions of the ceramics. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

LIMA-AREQUIPA (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. Flight to Arequipa (airfare not included). Arrival, assistance and transfer to the hotel. In the afternoon, the White City welcomes the group with a tour that starts in the colonial San Lázaro district, where Arequipa was founded. From there, a walk along picturesque streets decorated with geraniums and a climb to the Carmen Alto viewpoint, with a landscape of agricultural terraces and a view of the three volcanoes that surround the city: Misti, Chachani and Pichu Pichu. Next, the colonial district of Yanahuara, known for its Andalusian-style church and its viewpoint, surrounded by sillar arches. Then visit the Santa Catalina monastery, a religious monument that stayed closed for about 400 years. Its narrow streets, squares and gardens recall the old quarters of Seville or Granada. Continue to the Plaza de Armas, with the cathedral and the arches around it, and end the tour at the Church of the Society of Jesus, founded in the 17th century by the Jesuits, with highlights such as the cloisters and the dome of Saint Ignatius. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

AREQUIPA-COLCA

Breakfast. Departure by road toward the Colca Valley. The route follows the volcano road, climbing the slopes of the Chachani volcano, with views of the Misti and Pichu Pichu volcanoes. The road crosses the Pampa Cañahuas vicuña reserve, a high Andean habitat where these animals live protected. The highest point of the route is the Patapampa pass, at 4,900 m a.s.l., with a view of the active Sabancaya volcano. Descent to the Colca Valley. Arrival, lunch and overnight stay. Free time to rest or enjoy the hot springs of the region.

4

DAY 4

COLCA-PUNO

Breakfast. At dawn, departure for the Cruz del Cóndor viewpoint, to watch condors fly, large Andean birds that are a symbol of the Andean countries. From there you see the size of the canyon, considered one of the deepest in the world. Visit the villages of Maca and Yanque, which still keep their colonial churches. Lunch at a local restaurant. In the afternoon, a 6 and a half hour bus trip to the city of Puno. Arrival, assistance and transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

PUNO

Breakfast. In the morning, board a boat to visit the Uros, a people who took refuge on Lake Titicaca to escape the cultures that tried to dominate them. The community still builds its islands with ancestral techniques and welcomes visitors to share its knowledge. Continue sailing to Taquile island. The island community keeps its traditions, its clothing and its way of life alive. It is one of the few Quechua communities in an essentially Aymara region and stayed on the margins of modernity to preserve its identity. The welcome includes music and dances. Lunch at a community restaurant, with a simple, nutrient-rich meal. Then a walk around the area to enjoy the landscapes of Lake Titicaca. Return to the port of Puno and transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

PUNO-CUSCO

Breakfast. Departure by tourist bus toward Cusco. The first stop is the Pucará lithic museum, which keeps remains of the Pucará culture, with monoliths, stelae and animal-shaped sculptures. The town is also known for the Pucará bulls, multicolored crafts that symbolize protection, happiness and fertility. The next stop is La Raya, at 4,335 m a.s.l., the highest point of the route and the geographic divide between the Lake Titicaca and Vilcanota River basins, which flows into the Amazon. Lunch. Continue to the village of Racchi, where the temple of the god Wiracocha stands, with the stone bases of the enormous columns and walls that let you imagine the size of the building. As the last stop, visit the church of Saint Peter the Apostle of Andahuaylillas, known as the Sistine Chapel of the Americas for the paintings that decorate its ceilings and walls. Arrival in Cusco and transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

CUSCO

Breakfast. In the morning, away from the crowds, visit Sacsayhuamán, a citadel with colossal constructions surrounded by landscapes in harmony with their surroundings. Continue to the Inca shrine of Q'enqo, with the sacrificial altar carved into the rock formation. Then the Puca Pucará lookout post and Tambomachay, a monument of remarkable architecture considered one of the pillars of the Andean worldview. Free time in the city. In the afternoon, an exclusive tour of Cusco, which starts at San Cristóbal square, with a panoramic view of the city. Next, the San Pedro market, to see the products of the region and the local atmosphere of this traditional market that supplies the city. Then visit the Qorikancha temple, with walls that were once covered in gold. From San Blas, the artisans' neighborhood, walk down Hatun Rumiyoc street, passing the palace of Inca Roca, now the Archbishop's Palace, with time to admire the world-famous Stone of Twelve Angles. Continue to the Plaza de Armas to visit the cathedral, which holds colonial works of great value. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

CUSCO-SACRED VALLEY

Breakfast. Today, visit the main places in the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Departure for the village of Chinchero, the most typical and picturesque in the valley, known for its women weavers. Short stop at a textile center to learn the ancient Inca techniques of dyeing and spinning alpaca wool. Visit the Inca square and the colonial church. Continue to Moray, an Inca archaeological site made of concentric agricultural terraces that served as a laboratory to recreate microclimates. Lunch. Then Ollantaytambo, considered the last living Inca town. Visit the Temple of the Ten Windows, the baths of the Ñusta and the Temple of the Sun. The views from the heights of Ollantaytambo close the day in the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Overnight stay in the region.

9

DAY 9

SACRED VALLEY-MACHU PICCHU (TRAIN)-CUSCO

Breakfast. Departure for Ollantaytambo station to board the selected train to Machu Picchu. Arrival and assistance from our team to board the bus that climbs a winding road, with a view of the Urubamba River, which forms a deep canyon. The lost citadel of the Incas, Machu Picchu, welcomes visitors with its terraces, stairways, ceremonial areas and urban areas. Lunch. At the agreed time, return by train and transfer to the hotel in Cusco. Overnight stay.

10

DAY 10

CUSCO-LIMA (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. Flight to Lima (airfare not included). Arrival. End of services.

-  MINIMUM OF 2 PEOPLE: FOR A SINGLE TRAVELER, PLEASE ASK ***
- Machu Picchu has limited spaces, access in shifts and a maximum stay of 2 and a half hours, so booking requires the traveler's full details. The visit follows a set route: climbing on walls, resting on stairways or terraces, and using poles or drones are not allowed. The operation in Cusco is exclusive. The visit to the city and the Sacsayhuamán Archaeological Park is done in two half-day periods, which lets you see corners that the traditional visitor does not walk. This setup keeps the group away from the crowds and gives time to see each archaeological site and each church calmly.

The program includes

- ✓ Transfers to hotels and airports
- ✓ Shared transfer to the train station
- ✓ Accommodation with daily breakfast
- ✓ 6 lunches
- ✓ All entrance fees to the attractions described

Not included
