Continuation to the Bahia Palace, a 19th-century architectural landmark, and a walk through the historic medina and its craft souks. DAY 3

MARRAKESH-AIT BEN HADDOU-OUARZAZATE (210 KM)

Breakfast. Visit to the Majorelle Garden, known for its intense blue and its collection of exotic plants, and to the Pierre Bergé Museum of Berber Arts, dedicated to Amazigh culture and traditions. Then departure to the south, crossing the High Atlas over the Tizi N'Tichka pass, at 2,260 m of altitude. Lunch on the way, not included. Arrival at Ait Ben Haddou, an adobe citadel declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the setting of many film productions. After the visit, continuation to Ouarzazate, known as "the gateway to the desert". Dinner and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

OUARZAZATE-TODRA GORGES-ERFOUD (342 KM)

After breakfast, the route enters the Draa Valley and its changing landscapes. We pass adobe villages such as Skoura, where immense palm groves and old family kasbahs still survive, and Kelaat M'Gouna, land of roses, where the bloom is celebrated every spring with a festival. We reach Boumalne du Dadès and, further on, the Todra Gorges, a natural limestone canyon with walls up to 300 meters high. Free time for lunch and continuation to Erfoud, a Saharan town and center of the fossil industry. Dinner and accommodation.

5

DAY 5

ERFOUD-MERZOUGA (65 KM)

Breakfast. Today we continue to Merzouga and the Erg Chebbi dunes. In the desert, there is the option of an optional 4x4 excursion around the area: visits to nomad villages, hidden oases and the village of Khamlia, where Gnawa music echoes black Africa. In the middle of the afternoon, we start a camel caravan, like the old salt and spice traders, to cross the golden dunes. Sunset in the desert is a silent rite. Arrival at the camp among the dunes and accommodation in Berber tents. Traditional dinner under the stars, followed by drums, dances and legends by the fire.

6

DAY 6

MERZOUGA-IFRANE-FEZ (470 KM)

After breakfast, farewell to the Sahara and crossing of the Middle Atlas. We pass through Er Rachidia and Midelt and continue to Ifrane, "the little Switzerland", a town of alpine architecture, gabled roofs and well-kept flowers. The cedar forests around it are home to the Barbary macaque, a species endemic to North Africa. Arrival in Fez in the afternoon, an imperial city and spiritual center. Dinner and accommodation.

7

DAY 7

FEZ

After breakfast, we enter the heart of Fez el-Bali, the oldest and best-preserved medina in the Arab world. A maze of more than 9,000 busy alleys, where leather, copper, ceramics and wood are still worked as they have been for centuries. At midday we visit the Royal Palace, the bronze doors of Dar al-Makhzen, the Bou Inania Madrasa and the tanners' quarter, and walk from Bab Boujloud to Seffarine Square. Lunch at a traditional restaurant. Afternoon to rest and dinner on your own. Option of dinner with a show in a riad. Accommodation.

8

DAY 8

FEZ-CHEFCHAOUEN-TANGIER (305 KM)

Early breakfast and departure to the north. The Rif mountains welcome us with gentle terrain and the blue of Chefchaouen, "the blue pearl". Founded in 1471, it was a refuge for Andalusians expelled from the peninsula and still keeps a mystical atmosphere, between spirituality and beauty. We walk through its streets to Outa el-Hammam Square and have free time for lunch and shopping. Continuation to Tangier, a coastal city with an international spirit. Dinner and accommodation.

9

DAY 9

TANGIER

Breakfast. Free day to explore Tangier on your own: the Kasbah, the Grand Souk, the Atlantic coast and its literary cafés, such as Café Hafa, where musicians, poets and spies created legendary stories. Optional excursions to Tetouan, a city of Andalusian heritage, or to Asilah, the city of murals. Dinner and accommodation.

10

DAY 10

TANGIER
