DAY 3

TANGIER-VOLUBILIS-MEKNES-FEZ (350 KM)

Breakfast and departure through the Middle Atlas toward Fez. First stop in Volubilis, to visit its Roman ruins and the main street, the Decumanus Maximus, which starts at the Tangier gate and ends at the Arch of Triumph of Caracalla, from 217 AD. The street is paved and lined with large, decorated houses. Continue to Meknes, one of the imperial cities, which was once the capital of Morocco under the reign of Moulay Ismail. We will walk through its medina, El-Hedim square and its famous Bab Al Mansour gate, probably the most beautiful in Morocco. In the afternoon, arrival in Fez. Dinner and overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

4

DAY 4

FEZ

Breakfast and visit to the first of the imperial cities. Fez is the intellectual and religious capital of Morocco. We start with a panoramic route from the hotel to see the royal palace and its 7 gates, the Dar Al-Makhzen, on the way to the fascinating world of the medina of Fez El Bali, the oldest and largest in Morocco, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with 785 mosques and more than 2,000 squares, streets and alleys, which form a labyrinthine return in time. From Bab Boujloud to Es-Seffarine square we will travel through the centuries, from the 9th to the 19th. Along the walk, we will see how these alleys are structured and the different buildings that make up the walls of the medina, as well as its artisan guilds and neighborhoods such as the leather tanners' and the tailors', to learn about their old ways of working. We will see a madrasa and finish to the sound of the hammers of the artisans who work copper as they did hundreds of years ago. Lunch at a typical restaurant and free afternoon. We recommend an optional excursion through the medina and its crafts and carpets tour, for those who want to learn about this art or to buy. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

5

DAY 5

FEZ-CHEFCHAOUEN-TETOUAN (260 KM)

After breakfast, departure for the Rif mountains to see Chaouen or Chefchaouen, one of the most beautiful villages in Morocco. On arrival, we will walk through its alleys whitewashed in blue, its corners and its history to Outa El Hammam square, where we will have free time. This village was founded in 1471 to protect itself from the Portuguese invasion, until Moriscos and Jews settled in it, after the Spanish Reconquista, in medieval times. It was during the Spanish protectorate that the Spanish army occupied the city for good, until northern Morocco became independent, around 1958. Arrival in Tetouan in the afternoon. Dinner and overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

6

DAY 6

TETOUAN-TANGIER-COSTA DEL SOL (FERRY) (260 KM)

After breakfast, visit to the city of Tetouan. After the Reconquista, Tetouan served as the main point of contact between Morocco and Andalusia, which shows in its almost intact architecture. We will visit places of interest such as Moulay El Mehdi square and the Spanish Quarter (Ensanche) up to Hassan II square, where the Royal Palace stands. Continue through the Luneta and the Jewish Quarter, ending at the medina, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, up to the Bab Okla entrance. Continue to Tangier to catch the ferry back to Spain. Transfer to the Costa del Sol. Dinner and overnight stay.
