Day by day

1

DAY 1

VIENNA

Arrival at Vienna airport and transfer to the hotel. In the evening, meet your travel companions at a typical Austrian welcome dinner, in a restaurant known beyond the country's borders. In the setting, Empress Sissi is remembered at the table. Drinks included. Accommodation.

2

DAY 2

VIENNA

Breakfast and panoramic tour of the city, with the main points of interest in Vienna. Visit to the gardens of Belvedere Palace, the former summer residence of Prince Eugene of Savoy, with a broad view of the city. We continue along the Ringstrasse, the avenue that brings together buildings such as the State Opera, the Museum of Art History and the Museum of Natural History, the Austrian Parliament, the City Hall, the National Theater and the Hofburg, the presidential seat. Walk through the historic center and visit to the interior of St. Stephen's Cathedral, the most important in Vienna. We will also see the Anker Clock and the Jewish quarter. Accommodation.

3

DAY 3

VIENNA - HALLSTATT - SALZBURG

Breakfast and departure for one of the most beautiful regions of Austria: the Salzkammergut, known for its mountains and lakes. Visit to Hallstatt, a village whose charm has been replicated in China. We learn about its unique culture and the surrounding mountains. In the afternoon, continuation to Salzburg. Accommodation.

4

DAY 4

SALZBURG

Breakfast and panoramic tour of Salzburg. We start at Mirabell Palace, built by Archbishop Wolf Dietrich for his wife and children, now the seat of the city hall. We continue along Schwarzstrasse, passing the Mozarteum (music university), the Marionette Theater, Mozart's residence and the Holy Trinity Church, in the market square. We cross the Salzach River on the way to Hellbrunn Palace, pass the courts and make a short stop. Back in the city center, we pass Frohnburg Palace and Nonnberg Abbey, the oldest convent in German-speaking countries. Before finishing, we see the Festspielhaus (home of the Salzburg Festival), the Horse Pond and St. Basil's Church. Free afternoon. Accommodation.

5

DAY 5

SALZBURG - CRYSTAL WORLD - INNSBRUCK

Breakfast and departure for Innsbruck, with a stop at Crystal World, an exhibition created by the multimedia artist André Heller, with experiences with crystal in all its forms. Continuation to Innsbruck. Accommodation.

6

DAY 6

INNSBRUCK

Breakfast and visit to Innsbruck, capital of Tyrol and former residence of the Habsburgs. The city hosted the Winter Olympic Games twice. The visit includes the Triumphal Arch, the old town, the Golden Roof, the Court Church, where the tomb of Emperor Maximilian I stands, surrounded by the famous black copper statues, and the Hofburg Palace. Then we go up to the Nordkette Alps. First, a funicular to Hungerburg (860 m), then a cable car to Seegrube (1,905 m), where lunch is included. Finally, we go up to Hafelekar (2,256 m), the highest point, with broad views. In the afternoon, return to the hotel. Optionally, you can attend a show of traditional dances. Accommodation.

7

DAY 7

INNSBRUCK - LIECHTENSTEIN - ZURICH

Breakfast and departure for Switzerland, with a stop in the Principality of Liechtenstein, the sixth-smallest country in the world, between Austria and Switzerland. Liechtenstein brings together mountains, culture and picturesque villages. Continuation to Zurich. Accommodation.

8

DAY 8

ZURICH

Breakfast and city tour, highlighting the historic center, the Grossmünster Cathedral, the old city hall and St. Martin's Gate. Pass along the famous shopping avenue Bahnhofstrasse, the Fraumünster Church, the Limmatquai and the University district. Then visit a chocolate house, with the history of the product and a tasting. Accommodation.

9

DAY 9

ZURICH

Breakfast and transfer to the airport. End of our services.
