About the trip

Vietnam and Cambodia in 12 days, from Hanoi to Siem Reap, with stops in Ha Long, Hoi An, Hue and Ho Chi Minh. The itinerary includes an overnight cruise in Halong Bay, the evening boat trip on the Hoai River and the Angkor temples, with local Spanish-speaking guides.

What you will experience

- Temple of Literature, One Pillar Pagoda and a cyclo ride through the Old Quarter of Hanoi
- Night aboard a cruise in Halong Bay, a UNESCO-listed site
- Boat ride on the Hoai River in Hoi An at night, among lit lanterns
- Imperial Citadel of Hue and the tombs of Emperors Minh Mang and Khai Dinh
- Cu Chi Tunnels, a guerrilla base in the Vietnam War
- Angkor Thom, Bayon and Ta Prohm by tuk-tuk, and sunset at Angkor Wat

Day by day

1

DAY 1

HANOI

Arrival at Hanoi airport. Transfer to the city (about 1 hour), with time to get a first impression of Hanoi and its surprising mix of bustle and serenity. Arrival at the hotel and free time until check-in (rooms are normally available from 14:00, but, if available, they are usually released earlier). Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

HANOI

Breakfast. Visit to Hanoi, the capital of Vietnam. It is considered one of the few Asian cities with tree-lined avenues, French colonial architecture, quiet lakes and Eastern temples. Visit to the Temple of Literature, the first university in Vietnam, founded in 1070 in honor of Confucius and considered the symbol of Hanoi. We continue to the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, with a visit to the exterior from Ba Dinh Square. We go on to the One Pillar Pagoda, built in 1049 on a single stone pillar by Emperor Ly Thai Tong, who reigned from 1028 to 1054. The pagoda was designed to resemble a lotus flower, in honor of Buddha. Lunch at a local restaurant. We will have an experience with flowers and the traditional way of arranging them, at an artisan flower shop, to see how bouquets are made and how this beautiful traditional spiritual art of Vietnam is passed on and preserved, from generation to generation, to this day. Next, we arrive at Hoan Kiem Lake, the heart of Hanoi, where we will walk around the lake, with a panoramic view of the Ngoc Son Temple, set in the middle of the lake, and the Red Bridge The Huc. Finally, we will take a panoramic cyclo rickshaw ride through the Old Quarter of Hanoi, also known as the 36 streets quarter, because in the past it was known for the trades of the artisans who lived there and the workshops that were there. Return to the hotel. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

3

DAY 3

HANOI-HALONG BAY (CRUISE)

Breakfast. Departure by road for Halong Bay, which in Vietnamese means “the dragon that descends into the sea” and, according to legend, it was a dragon that formed the islands of the bay. Boarding a cruise to visit the bay. Lunch on board. We keep sailing among thousands of islands and islets covered in abundant vegetation that rise from the bay, with unusual shapes and different sizes. The emerald-colored waters lead us to explore islands such as Turtle Island, Dog Island and Man's Head, among others. For its unique beauty, geological peculiarity, biological richness and cultural and historical importance, Halong Bay was declared a World Heritage site by UNESCO in 1994 and included in the list of the New Seven Wonders of Nature in 2011. Dinner and overnight stay on board. (The cruise itinerary is subject to change without prior notice for weather reasons).

Meals included: breakfast, lunch and dinner

4

DAY 4

HALONG BAY-HANOI-DA NANG-HOI AN (FLIGHT)

At sunrise, for those who are interested, there is a tai chi class on the sun deck. We keep sailing through the bay of almost 2000 limestone islands and enjoying its unique landscapes. We will have a brunch to recharge our energy before returning to land. We disembark at Halong pier, from where we continue by road to Hanoi and the airport to catch the flight to Da Nang (airfare not included). On arrival, direct transfer to Hoi An (approx. 30 min.). At nightfall, transfer to the Hoai River, where we will take a boat trip. This river has a very special meaning for the people of Hoi An, as it witnessed the events that took place in Vietnam over the years. When night falls, the streets light up with lanterns and colored lights, and lanterns are also released onto the water to ask for good omens. The city takes on a new, bright and mysterious look. Disembarkation and free time to stroll through the streets and return to the hotel on your own. Overnight stay.

Meals included: brunch

5

DAY 5

HOI AN

Breakfast. Visit to the city of Hoi An, an important trading port in Asia in the 17th and 18th centuries, whose architecture and quiet way of life have changed little in recent years. Arrival at the Old Quarter, where we start the walking tour of the center of the ancient city to visit Phung Hung (old merchants' house), the Japanese covered bridge, more than 400 years old, the Phuc Kien hall, the old Tan Ky House, with its traditional architecture, and the museum. Lunch at a restaurant. Free afternoon to enjoy the beach, stroll through the colorful market in the center or shop. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

6

DAY 6

HOI AN-DA NANG-HUE

Breakfast. Then, transfer to Da Nang, where we will see its beaches. We will also visit the Linh Ung pagoda, with a beautiful panoramic view of the city, and the coast of the Son Tra Peninsula. We continue by road to Hue, the former imperial capital of Vietnam. Lunch at a restaurant and transfer to the hotel. In the afternoon, we will visit the Thien Mu pagoda (Celestial Lady), the symbol of Hue, built in 1601 between a river and a pine forest, on the banks of the famous Perfume River. Before returning to the hotel, we will explore the lively Dong Ba market, an important place for the people of Hue and for getting to know Vietnamese life. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

7

DAY 7

HUE-HO CHI MINH (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Visit to the imperial city of Hue, the country's former capital for more than 140 years, with its rich historical past and monuments scattered among the walls. Visit to the Imperial Citadel, declared a World Heritage site by UNESCO in 1993, which holds inside the legendary “Purple Forbidden City”. The city was protected by an enormous wall and a moat, 10 km long, and it was from there that the Nguyen dynasty ruled between 1802 and 1945. Then, we visit the tomb of Emperor Minh Mang, also known as the “temple of supreme grace”. Lunch. We continue with the visit to the tomb of Emperor Khai Dinh. We walk through the Stele Pavilion, the tomb chamber, the emperor's bronze statue, among other spaces, with their decoration. Flight to Ho Chi Minh (Saigon) (airfare not included). Arrival and transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

8

HO CHI MINH-CU CHI TUNNELS-HO CHI MINH

Breakfast. Departure to visit the Cu Chi tunnels, an impressive complex of underground tunnels more than 200 kilometers long, which served as the base of operations for the Viet Cong guerrillas during the Vietnam War. Then we return to Ho Chi Minh City for lunch at a local restaurant. In the afternoon we visit Ho Chi Minh City, still called Saigon by many residents, where we will first see the historic Reunification Palace (exterior visit) and the old Central Post Office, with its impressive architecture. We will take a walk along the pedestrian street Nguyen Hue, where the municipal buildings, the statue of Ho Chi Minh and the City Hall gather. In the late afternoon, we can have a Vietnamese coffee, enjoy the sunset or watch the busy scenery of the city, its shops and its friendly people. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

9

DAY 9

HO CHI MINH-SIEM REAP (FLIGHT) CAMBODIA

Breakfast and free time until the transfer to the airport to catch the flight to Siem Reap (airfare not included). Arrival and transfer to the hotel. In the afternoon, we start the visits to the Rolous group of temples: Preah Ko, the Bakong temple mountain and the Lolei temple, set in the middle of an old water reservoir, the Baray. This group of temples dates from the end of the 9th century and is an example of Khmer art. It represents the remains of Hariharalaya, the first capital of the great Angkor empire in the Khmer era. The rest of the day is free. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast

DAY 10

SIEM REAP-ANGKOR THOM-ANGKOR WAT-SIEM REAP

Breakfast. Departure by tuk-tuk (a kind of motorbike with a cart, a very typical vehicle in Cambodia) to the South Gate, from where you can see its impressive statues representing the churning of the ocean, the ancient capital of Angkor Thom (12th century), the Bayon temple, with its 54 decorated towers and about 200 enigmatic smiling faces of Avalokitesvara, the Phimeanakas temple, the terraces of the Leper King and of the Elephants and the royal chambers. Next, visit to the Ta Prohm temple, which has remained relatively the same as when it was found and still keeps much of its mystery. Lunch. In the afternoon, transfer by bus to visit the most famous of all the temples, Angkor Wat, declared a UNESCO World Heritage site. The complex of this temple covers 81 hectares, comparable in size to the Imperial Palace in Beijing. The well-known five towers are part of the Cambodian flag. They represent the 5 peaks of Meru, the walls surrounding them are the mountains, and the valley around them is the ocean. We gaze at this 12th-century work of art, considered by historians the first example of classical Khmer architecture and art, while enjoying the sunset, to end the day. Return to the hotel. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

11

DAY 11

SIEM REAP-BANTEAY SAMRE-BANTEAY SREI-SIEM REAP

Breakfast. We will attend a Buddhist ceremony with monks at a pagoda, where we will learn more about Buddhism and how this religion influences Cambodian culture. We will end the ceremony with a prayer from the monks to share luck and blessings. Next, we visit the Hindu temple of Banteay Samre. This sacred place, dedicated to the god Shiva, is decorated with abundant Hindu-themed reliefs that tell various scenes of the Ramayana. We continue the excursion to the great temple of Banteay Srei (literally “city of victory”), known today as the “Citadel of Women” because it is the only temple of the Khmer empire that was not built for a monarch, but by and for women. Built according to the construction norms of Angkor, Banteay Srei is a beautiful and elegant temple, on a small scale, a fairy palace in the middle of an endless forest. We gaze at this “masterpiece of Khmer art”, its pink sandstone facade, its sculptures and its reliefs carved with great precision, and we keep learning about the art of the ancient Khmer empire. Lunch. On the way back, we will visit the Artisans d'Angkor, a center that supports young Cambodians in keeping traditional crafts alive. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

DAY 12
