Day by day

1

DAY 1

BAKU

Arrival at Baku International Airport and transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

BAKU / GOBUSTAN / BAKU

Breakfast. Departure for Gobustan along the Caspian Sea coast to Gobustan National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its Stone Age rock paintings and engravings, which show hunting scenes, animals, people and boats. Visit to the mud volcanoes, in a unique lunar landscape, weather permitting. Return to Baku and visit to Martyrs' Lane, with good views of the bay. Then a walk through the medieval walled city of Icheri Sheher, with its narrow lanes, old caravanserais and mosques. Visit to the Palace of the Shirvanshahs, the former residence of the rulers of the State of Shirvan, and an exterior view of the 12th-century Maiden Tower. Both monuments are part of the site declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Return to the hotel. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

BAKU / ABSHERON / BAKU

Breakfast. Departure for the Absheron Peninsula to visit Ateshgah, known as the Eternal Fire Temple, an ancient place of worship of the Zoroastrians who traveled the trade routes of Azerbaijan. Continuation to Yanardag, the Burning Mountain, about 25 km from Baku, where natural gas rising from the ground keeps the flames alight. On the way back, a photo stop at the Heydar Aliyev Cultural Center, known for its unique architecture. Free time. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

BAKU / SHAMAKHI / SHEKI

Breakfast. Departure for Sheki. On the way, visit to the Diri Baba Mausoleum in Maraza, then continuation to Shamakhi, the former capital of Shirvan, where you see the Friday Mosque, considered one of the first mosques in the Caucasus. Lunch included. Arrival in Sheki and a walking visit of the city, including the Sheki Khans' Palace, famous for its interior decoration, paintings and colored stained-glass windows. Continuation to an old caravanserai and the local craft shops. Visit also to a shebeke workshop, to learn how the traditional stained-glass windows are made and take part in a craft demonstration. Then departure for the village of Kish to visit its old Caucasian Albanian church, on a rise on the outskirts of Sheki. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

SHEKI / LAGODEKHI / KAKHETI / TBILISI

Breakfast. Transfer to the Georgian border, with arrival expected around 12:00. Border formalities, change of vehicle and continuation to Kakheti, one of the most fertile and picturesque regions of Georgia, known for its wines, its valleys and the landscapes of the Greater Caucasus. Traditional Georgian lunch at the home of a local family, with dishes prepared from fresh produce and family recipes. Continuation to Sighnaghi, known as the "City of Love", an 18th-century town that keeps its old walls, traditional wooden houses and carved balconies. From there, views of the Alazani Valley and the Greater Caucasus mountains. Then a visit to a traditional winery to taste Georgian wines made in clay amphorae, by an ancestral method declared an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO. Continuation to Tbilisi, the capital of Georgia. Arrival and overnight stay. Note: the neutral zone at the border is crossed on foot, with luggage, over about 800 meters. In Georgia, the transfer from the border to the local family's home, about one hour, is with a driver only. There the group meets the guide and the other travelers to continue the itinerary through Georgia and Armenia.

6

DAY 6

TBILISI

Breakfast. Visit to Tbilisi, the capital of Georgia, known for its narrow streets, colorful houses, carved balconies and the mix of traditional and modern architecture. The tour starts at the Metekhi Church, with a view of the old town. Continuation on foot through the picturesque lanes to see the city's main monuments. Panorama of the historic center, a pass by the old Narikala Fortress and a visit to the historic Sulfur Baths, linked to the origin of the city's name. Return to the hotel. Overnight stay. Note: most of the visit is on foot.

7

DAY 7

TBILISI / MTSKHETA / GORI / UPLISTSIKHE / GUDAURI

Breakfast. Departure for Mtskheta, the former capital and religious center of Georgia, with more than 3,000 years of history. Visit to the 6th-century Jvari Monastery and the 11th-century Svetitskhoveli Cathedral, where, according to tradition, the robe of Christ is buried. Both monuments are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Continuation to the cave city of Uplistsikhe, from the first millennium BC, an important stop on the ancient Silk Road. During the visit you see dwellings, temples, wine cellars, tunnels and theaters carved into the rock. Then a pass through Gori, with a photo stop at the Joseph Stalin Museum. Continuation north along the Georgian Military Highway, with views of the Caucasus mountains. Arrival in Gudauri, a ski resort at more than 2,000 meters of altitude. Dinner and overnight stay. Note: the visit to Uplistsikhe requires walking on stone surfaces, going up and down small slopes and stairs and crossing a tunnel. Closed shoes, a cap and sunscreen are recommended.

8

DAY 8

GUDAURI / STEPANTSMINDA / TBILISI

Breakfast. Departure for Kazbegi, through the landscapes of the Terek River valley, to Stepantsminda, the main town of the region. From there, a ride in local vehicles through valleys and woods to the Gergeti Trinity Church, at 2,170 meters of altitude. Weather permitting, view of Mount Kazbegi, one of the great peaks of the Caucasus, 5,047 meters high. Return to Stepantsminda and continuation to Tbilisi, passing the Ananuri architectural complex and the Jinvali Reservoir, surrounded by scenery. Arrival and overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

TBILISI / SADAKHLO / HAGHPAT / DILIJAN / LAKE SEVAN / YEREVAN

Breakfast. Departure for the Armenian border, with arrival in Sadakhlo expected around 10:00. Border formalities, change of vehicle and continuation to Haghpat, where you visit the monastery, founded in the year 976 and declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The monastic complex of medieval Armenia stands out for its architecture from the 10th to the 13th centuries. Continuation to Dilijan, a forested region known as "the little Switzerland of Armenia". Short stop to walk through the old center of Dilijan, famous for its atmosphere and traditional architecture. Then departure for Lake Sevan, one of the country's great mountain lakes, at about 2,000 meters of altitude. Views of the lake and a visit to the Sevanavank Monastery, founded in the year 874 and located on a peninsula of the lake. Continuation to Yerevan. Arrival and overnight stay. Note: the neutral zone at the border is crossed on foot, with luggage, over about 300 meters.

10

DAY 10

YEREVAN / ECHMIADZIN / ZVARTNOTS / YEREVAN

Breakfast. Visit to Yerevan, founded in 782 BC and considered one of the oldest cities in the world. Along the way you see Republic Square, surrounded by buildings of traditional Armenian architecture, such as the Government House, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Central Post Office and the National Gallery of Art. Continuation to the Cascade Complex, an open-air museum and the Cafesjian modern art center, home of the famous Cat statue by the sculptor Fernando Botero. Climb up the Cascade, with a panoramic view of the city and the Yerevan Opera. Then a visit to a brandy factory to learn about the tradition of making this Armenian drink. Departure for Echmiadzin, about 20 km from Yerevan, to visit the cathedral, considered one of the first Christian churches in the world and the spiritual center of the Armenian Church. On the way back to the capital, a visit to the ruins of the Zvartnots temple, an example of 7th-century Armenian architecture, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Return to Yerevan. Overnight stay.

11

DAY 11

YEREVAN / GARNI / GEGHARD / YEREVAN

Breakfast. Visit to the Matenadaran Museum, which holds an important collection of manuscripts and historical documents from Europe and Asia, including ancient biblical texts and Armenian gospels illustrated with miniatures. Continuation to Garni, about 30 km from Yerevan, with a stop at the Charents Arch, with views of Mount Ararat. Visit to the Temple of Garni, built in the 1st century AD during the reign of Tiridates I and considered the main surviving example of pagan architecture in Armenia. You also see the ruins of the old royal palace and the baths, decorated with mosaics. Then a demonstration of how the traditional Armenian lavash bread is baked in an underground oven called a tonir, a tradition declared an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO. Continuation to the Geghard Monastery, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site and considered a masterpiece of 13th-century Armenian architecture. Part of the churches and outbuildings are carved directly into the rock, with a unique construction and remarkable acoustics. Return to Yerevan. Overnight stay.

12
