Day by day

1

DAY 1

MEXICO CITY

Welcome at Mexico City "Benito Juárez" Airport (AICM) and transfer to the hotel. Accommodation.

2

DAY 2

MEXICO CITY / COYOACÁN / XOCHIMILCO

Breakfast. Today we head south of Mexico City to Coyoacán, one of the oldest neighborhoods in the city, known for having been home to figures such as León Trotsky, Octavio Paz, Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo. Walk along cobblestone streets and picturesque squares, with the 16th-century Baroque mansions typical of the area. The tour continues to the Autonomous University of Mexico, to see the architecture of the largest university in Latin America and, in the late afternoon, Xochimilco. Nature and culture come together there: board a trajinera (a small traditional boat decorated with flowers) to travel the network of canals and artificial islands declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Return to the hotel. Accommodation.

DAY 3

MEXICO CITY / TLATELOLCO / BASILICA OF GUADALUPE / TEOTIHUACAN / MEXICO CITY

Breakfast. Departure for the Plaza of the Three Cultures, in the Tlatelolco district, which brings together the three eras of the country: pre-Hispanic, colonial and modern. Short 15-minute stop for photos and explanation. Continue to the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the second most visited Catholic shrine in the world. Stay of about one hour, with an explanation of the inside of the Basilica, the old basilica and the main chapels of the shrine. Then Teotihuacan, "where men become gods". Visit to the Temple of Quetzalcoatl, the Avenue of the Dead, the Pyramid of the Sun, the Pyramid of the Moon and the Temple of Quetzalpapalotl. Visit to a craft workshop for obsidian and other semiprecious stones, used to make pre-Hispanic ornaments and personal adornments. Demonstration of the maguey plant, the tequila agave and henequen. Time for craft shopping. Return to Mexico City and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

MEXICO CITY / CUERNAVACA / TAXCO / MEXICO CITY

Breakfast. Departure for Cuernavaca, the "city of eternal spring", for its good weather all year round. Visit to the Cathedral of the Assumption, built in 1520, and to the central park. Continue to Taxco, a city known worldwide for its beautiful colonial architecture and its silver goods. Arrival and visit to a craft workshop. Time for lunch at the passenger's own expense. Continue to the city center to see the beautiful Church of Santa Prisca, with its Churrigueresque facade. It was paid for by José de la Borda in 1751, to whom the phrase is attributed: "God gives to Borda, Borda gives to God". Time to walk along cobblestone streets and attractive alleys. Return to Mexico City and accommodation.
