About the trip

Eight days through Ireland and Northern Ireland, from Dublin to the Cliffs of Moher, the Aran Islands and the Giant's Causeway. The itinerary has a Spanish-speaking guide from day 2 to day 7, 5 dinners at the hotel and entrance fees included at the main attractions.

What you will experience

- Dublin with St. Patrick's Cathedral, the Castle, Temple Bar and Trinity College
- Bunratty Castle and its folk park, with the Burren region and the Cliffs of Moher
- Ferry to the Aran Islands and the Dun Aengus fort, more than 2,000 years old, on Inishmore
- Galway, William Butler Yeats' Sligo and the village of Mullaghmore, with a view of Ben Bulben
- Derry's city walls and the Giant's Causeway, with its basalt columns
- Belfast and its quarters, with free time for the Titanic Museum

Day by day

1

DAY 1

DUBLIN

Arrival in Dublin. Transfer from the airport to the hotel. Accommodation.

2

DAY 2

DUBLIN-LIMERICK

Breakfast. Panoramic tour of the city, covering the north side of the River Liffey and its monuments, the General Post Office, O'Connell Street and the Custom House. Then the south side of the river, with the great Georgian squares, such as Merrion Square, and St Patrick's Cathedral. Walk through the heart of the city, with Dublin Castle, the Temple Bar area and Trinity College, the oldest university in Ireland, founded by Queen Elizabeth I in 1592, home of the famous "Book of Kells". Free time. Departure for Limerick, crossing Phoenix Park, the largest urban park in Europe. Dinner and accommodation.

3

DAY 3

LIMERICK-BUNRATTY CASTLE-CLIFFS OF MOHER-COUNTY GALWAY

Breakfast. Visit to Bunratty Castle and its folk park, a Norman fortress that combines a large estate and an open-air museum on traditional Irish life. Departure for the Burren region, a peculiar geological formation, with lunar, arid landscapes and many archaeological, botanical and zoological remains. We continue to the Cliffs of Moher, where you can walk along the most famous cliffs in Ireland. In the afternoon, departure for County Galway. Arrival at the hotel, dinner and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

COUNTY GALWAY-ARAN ISLANDS-COUNTY GALWAY

Breakfast. Departure for a full-day excursion to the Aran Islands. We take the ferry and, after a crossing of about 45 minutes, arrive at Inishmore, where a minibus takes us to the most important places on the island up to the fort of Dun Aengus, more than 2,000 years old, on intact cliffs overlooking the Atlantic. Return by ferry in the afternoon. Dinner and accommodation.

5

DAY 5

GALWAY-SLIGO-DONEGAL

Breakfast. Departure to visit Galway, a port city on the west coast of Ireland, where the River Corrib flows into the Atlantic Ocean. The center of the city is Eyre Square, an 18th-century square with traditional shops and pubs, where you often hear live folk music. Nearby are the winding lanes of the Latin Quarter, where part of the city's medieval walls is preserved. Continuation to Sligo, a charming town and birthplace of the most famous Irish writer, William Butler Yeats. Visit to the village of Mullaghmore, overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. In the background, you can see the silhouette of Ben Bulben, a mountain beloved by William Butler Yeats. Dinner and accommodation in County Donegal.

6

DAY 6

LONDONDERRY-GIANT'S CAUSEWAY-BELFAST

Breakfast. Departure for Derry and a walk through the historic center, surrounded by the original walls, still intact. We continue with a short stop near Dunluce Castle and go on to the Giant's Causeway, a natural formation of prismatic basalt columns. In the afternoon, departure for Belfast. Dinner and accommodation.

7

DAY 7

BELFAST-DUBLIN

Breakfast. Visit to Belfast, a city with a wide cultural offering. Its four districts, or "quarters" (Cathedral, Titanic, Queen's and Gaeltacht), bring together museums, pubs and art galleries. Free time, with the option to enter the Titanic Museum, an interactive six-floor tour that tells the story of the building of the famous ocean liner, its one tragic voyage and the city of Belfast itself. Continuation to Dublin, arrival and accommodation.

8

DAY 8

DUBLIN

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. End of services.
