About the trip

Eight days through eastern Canada, from Toronto to Montreal, with stops in Niagara Falls, Ottawa, Mont Tremblant and Quebec City. Includes boat rides at the falls and in the Thousand Islands, 7 breakfasts and guided city visits.

What you will experience

- Panoramic tour of Toronto, with a photo stop at the CN Tower, and Niagara-on-the-Lake
- Hornblower boat to the foot of Niagara Falls (May to October) or a visit to the Scenic Tunnels
- Boat ride through the Thousand Islands archipelago, where Lake Ontario becomes the St. Lawrence River
- Visit to Ottawa, with Parliament and the Rideau Canal, and free time in Mont Tremblant
- Stop at a sugar shack, with caramelized maple syrup, on the way to Quebec
- Visit to Quebec, with the walled city, St. Louis Gate, the Château Frontenac and Place Royale

Day by day

1

DAY 1

TORONTO

Welcome at Toronto airport and transfer to the hotel. Room check-in is from 4 pm. Rest of the day free. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

TORONTO-NIAGARA FALLS

American breakfast. Departure for the panoramic city tour: city hall, the provincial Parliament, the University of Toronto, the bohemian Yorkville neighborhood and the baseball stadium and CN Tower area (the tallest freestanding tower in the world), where we stop for photos. Next, we head to Niagara-on-the-Lake, a lovely town and the former capital of Upper Canada. Free time for lunch. Later, we continue along the wine route to the famous Niagara Falls, where we sail the Niagara River on the Hornblower boat, which takes us right up to the falls themselves. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

NIAGARA FALLS-THOUSAND ISLANDS-OTTAWA (HULL)

Continental breakfast. On the way to Canada's federal capital, we take the Trans-Canada Highway and stop for a boat ride through the beautiful Thousand Islands archipelago, where Lake Ontario turns into the St. Lawrence River. After lunch (not included), we continue to Ottawa. We enter the city past the experimental farm and drive along the picturesque Rideau Canal and its beautiful residential neighborhoods. We take an orientation tour of the city before checking in at the hotel. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

OTTAWA-MONT TREMBLANT

American breakfast. We leave the hotel to continue the city visit, passing Parliament, the residences of the governor general and the prime minister, the Rideau Canal and the residential areas. The changing of the guard at Parliament can only be seen in July and August. During free time, we suggest visiting one of the museums of Canada's federal capital. After lunch (not included), we leave for the Laurentian Mountains, home to most of eastern Canada's ski resorts, an attraction in both summer and winter. Arrival in the late afternoon and free time in Mont Tremblant. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

MONT TREMBLANT-QUEBEC CITY

American breakfast. We set out early for Quebec City. On the way, we stop at one of the region's typical sugar shacks, where you can taste caramelized maple syrup and learn how it is made. On arrival in Quebec City, we begin the panoramic tour. After lunch (not included), we continue the city visit, with the battlefields, Cap Diamant, the Joan of Arc Garden, the Grande Allée, the Quebec Parliament, the walled city, Saint-Louis Gate, Place d'Armes, the Château Frontenac area, the Hôtel de Ville, the old port and Place Royale. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

QUEBEC CITY

American breakfast. Free day for personal activities or optional tours. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

QUEBEC CITY-MONTREAL

American breakfast. Departure for Montreal, the cultural and fashion capital. Canada also stands out for its nightlife and food. Panoramic visit of Montreal: McGill University, the Golden Square Mile, Saint Joseph's Oratory, Mount Royal (stop at the lookout) and the Latin Quarter. After lunch (not included), we continue the panoramic visit through Old Montreal, passing Place d'Armes and Notre-Dame Basilica (entrance not included), the old port, Jacques-Cartier Square and city hall. Rest of the afternoon free. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

MONTREAL

American breakfast. At the agreed time, transfer to the airport and end of our services.
