Day by day

1

DAY 1

PORTO

Arrival in Porto and transfer on your own to the hotel or guesthouse. Rest of the day free. Overnight stay. Porto is the second most important city in Portugal, after Lisbon. Declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site, it stands out for its architecture, its beautiful riverbank and its famous sweet wine. It is worth spending a whole day exploring the city. We are sure you will want to come back.

2

PORTO (MATOSINHOS) / PÓVOA DE VARZIM (25.4 KM / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. A transfer takes the group from Porto to Matosinhos, where the walk begins. The day is about beaches. This first stage follows the banks of the Douro River and runs along the coast on flat terrain with beautiful scenery. The dunes are crossed on wooden walkways, in a simple stage without big changes in elevation. Overnight stay in Póvoa de Varzim.

3

DAY 3

PÓVOA DE VARZIM / ESPOSENDE (21 KM / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. The day has a bit of everything. There are stretches of coastal scenery and stretches more inland, with roads and asphalt. You cross the Cávado River to Esposende. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

ESPOSENDE / VIANA DO CASTELO (25.1 KM / MEDIUM DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. A stage entirely inland. We leave the coastal scenery that has accompanied us so far and enter the Northern Coast Natural Park. We go down to the bed of the Neiva River and reach Viana do Castelo, whose historic center is very beautiful. The fact that the stage does not run along the coast does not put its scenery behind the others. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

VIANA DO CASTELO / CAMINHA (26.8 KM / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. Today is the last day in Portugal before reaching Galicia (Spain). The day begins with a choice: follow the yellow arrows on the Official Way, which runs inland, or opt for the coast and follow the beaches and the sea. The coastal option is not well signposted, but it is easy to follow. Both variants lead to Vila Praia de Âncora, a charming fishing village, with an urban beach and a long seaside promenade. After leaving the village, we continue toward Caminha, a historic town at the mouth of the Minho River. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

CAMINHA / OIA (17 KM / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. Today's stage leads to Galicia. We say goodbye to the Portuguese scenery that has accompanied us all along the route, and the Galician scenery is no less beautiful. The first task is to cross the Minho River, which marks the border between Portugal and Spain. The crossing is by ferry (paid at the destination). Pay attention to the timetable, available at the reception of the accommodations, because it varies with the tides. There is never a ferry on Mondays, but you can always opt for water taxis. The crossing from one bank to the other takes about 15 minutes. The whole stage follows the coast. A few kilometers after the start you reach A Guarda, a fishing village of great interest, which stands out for its brightly colored sailors' houses and its Indian-style architecture. One of the village's great attractions is Mount Santa Tegra, where there is a hillfort dating from the 4th century BC. The route continues to Portecelo and ends in Oia. In Oia, the Royal Cistercian Monastery of Santa Maria stands out, declared an Asset of Cultural Interest. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

OIA / BAIONA (18 KM / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. The first kilometers of the day follow the coast. Then the path goes a little inland, with a pleasant stretch through the hills to the village of Baiona. Its old town and its marina stand out. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

BAIONA / VIGO (27 KM ON THE OFFICIAL WAY / 25 KM ALONG THE COAST / ABOUT 6 H / MEDIUM DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. The stage delights with its scenery. Skirting the Ría de Vigo, you continue to Nigrán. You walk along beaches such as Panxón, Patos and Samil until you reach the largest city in Galicia, Vigo. The difficulty of the day lies in the distance and the changes in elevation. There is also the option of going inland, toward Priegue and Coruxo, and then following the Lagares river trail. This option can be more tiring, especially the more industrial entry into Vigo. Overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

VIGO / REDONDELA (16 KM / ABOUT 4 H / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. We leave Vigo toward the Senda da Traída das Águas, which leads to Redondela, the point where the route joins the inland Portuguese Way. Before that point, the Way passes near Trasmañó. Some pilgrims detour about 5 km to see its imposing waterfall. The woods and the ría stay beside the walker during the stage. Finally, we reach Redondela. Overnight stay.

10

DAY 10

REDONDELA / PONTEVEDRA (19.6 KM / ABOUT 4 H / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. We leave Redondela toward Arcade, famous for its oysters. Accompanied by the Ría de Vigo, we cross leafy woods to the historic Ponte Sampaio, on the way to Pontevedra. Overnight stay.

11

DAY 11

PONTEVEDRA / CALDAS DE REIS (21.1 KM / ABOUT 5 H / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. A calm and pleasant route. We leave behind the changes in elevation of the previous stretches and enter much flatter, gentler terrain. We pass through several villages until we reach Caldas de Reis, where pilgrims who wish can relax in one of its famous spas. Overnight stay.

12

DAY 12

CALDAS DE REIS / PADRÓN (18.6 KM / ABOUT 4 H / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. Today we walk the stage with the most beautiful scenery: vineyards, farmland, the Bermaña valley, chestnut and eucalyptus woods, in the most agricultural Galicia. We finish in Padrón, where it is worth trying the famous peppers. Overnight stay.

13

DAY 13

PADRÓN / SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA (24.3 KM / ABOUT 6 H / LOW DIFFICULTY)

Luggage must be left at the hotel or guesthouse reception before 8:00. Breakfast. The last stage of the Way. We cross the N-550 road several times and follow the train line. We go first to Iria Flavia and climb to O Milladoiro, from where we begin to see the towers of the Cathedral as we approach Santiago. Here the wish to arrive mixes with the sadness of seeing the experience end. Overnight stay.

14

DAY 14

SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA
