- Winter cruise on the Nærøyfjord, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, to Gudvangen
- Train from Flåm to Bergen, with a new section on the Flåmsbana to Myrdal
- Free day in Bergen, with the Hanseatic Bryggen, the fish market and the Fløibanen funicular

Day by day

1

DAY 1

OSLO

Welcome to the Kingdom of Norway! The country with the most beautiful fjords on Earth. Arrival in Oslo. Forests and the beautiful Oslofjord surround this vibrant city. Transfer to the hotel not included, with the option of booking in advance. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

OSLO

Accommodation and breakfast. Free day. Enjoy the Norwegian capital on your own. We recommend the basic route, which includes Frogner Park, with all the Vigeland sculptures, the Royal Palace and the City Hall. You can also visit the famous Holmenkollen ski jump, with a wonderful view of the whole city and the fjord, walk the streets and explore the royal family's city and the main street, Karl Johan, with many shops, bars and cafés.

3

DAY 3

OSLO-FLÅM (TRAIN)

Breakfast. Meeting with the tour leader and a walk to the train station, where you take the train to Myrdal. Possible train departures: 06:25 and 08:25 (subject to availability). Note: for an early departure, a breakfast box will be provided. Myrdal is a mountain railway station, about 13 km from the village of Flåm. There you take the famous Flåmsbana, one of the steepest train lines in the world. The train ride crosses fantastic nature, passes the Rallar road, impressive mountains and waterfalls, and 20 tunnels, and offers so many viewpoints that many people want to repeat the journey between the mountain and the fjord. Arrival in Flåm, a short walk to the hotel. Rest of the day free to explore this wonderful place. Dinner and overnight stay. (On the New Year departure, the overnight stay is in Voss.)

4

DAY 4

FLÅM (CRUISE)

Breakfast. Today we take a winter cruise on the fjord and see the Nærøyfjord in all its winter splendor: narrow and spectacular, surrounded by steep mountains with snow-covered peaks rising up to 1,800 meters above sea level. Water cascades down the mountains and picturesque villages dot the landscape. This area is on the UNESCO World Heritage list and is considered one of the most beautiful fjord landscapes in the world. After arriving in Gudvangen, a shared regular bus takes you back to Flåm. Dinner and overnight stay. (On the New Year departure, the overnight stay is in Voss.)

5

DAY 5

FLÅM TO BERGEN (FROM THE FJORDS TO THE COAST) (TRAIN)

Breakfast. Free time in the morning to explore Flåm. Short walk to the train station and departure for Bergen, a World Heritage city. Bergen is the gateway to Norway's fjords. A UNESCO World Heritage city and a European city of culture, the Bergen region combines nature, culture and lively urban life all year round. At 11:05, departure on the panoramic train to Myrdal (arrival at 12:01). At 13:00, train from Myrdal to Bergen (arrival at 14:57). Train times subject to change. Short walk to the hotel. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

BERGEN

Accommodation and breakfast. Free day. Time to explore Bergen on your own. Take a stroll through Bergen's colorful center. Pass the most emblematic places, such as the Hanseatic Bryggen, with St. Mary's church, Håkon's fortress and the famous fish market. Ride the spectacular Fløibanen funicular, which goes to the top of the mountain.

7

DAY 7

BERGEN

Breakfast. Take the chance to do the typical last-minute shopping and bring home some souvenirs of your Viking experience. Transfer to the airport not included, with the option of booking in advance. End of services.
