About the trip

9-day circuit through Marrakesh, Rabat, Tangier, Fez and Casablanca, with a tour leader and visits with a local guide. Includes 2 lunches, 6 dinners and arrival and departure transfers.

What you will experience

- Marrakech with the Menara gardens, the Bahia Palace, the Mellah and Jemaa el-Fna Square
- Rabat with the Hassan Tower, the Mausoleum of Mohammed V and the Kasbah of the Udayas
- Tangier with Cape Spartel, where the Atlantic and the Mediterranean meet
- Roman ruins of Volubilis and Meknes, with El-Hedim Square and the Bab Al-Mansour Gate
- Fez el-Bali Medina, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with the Bou Inania Madrasa and the Chouara tanneries
- Free day in Tangier, with an optional excursion to Chefchaouen, the blue city

Day by day

1

DAY 1

MARRAKESH

Welcome to Morocco, the country of contrasts. Arrival in Marrakesh, assistance and transfer to the hotel. Arrivals outside the schedule may incur additional private transfer costs. Dinner and accommodation.

2

DAY 2

MARRAKESH

Breakfast. Marrakesh is not visited, it is lived. On this day we explore the soul of the city, from the Menara gardens, an old irrigation system brought from the Atlas through underground channels, to the Bahia Palace, a reference of 19th-century architecture, with painted ceilings and courtyards full of orange trees. The tour also includes the Mellah, the old Jewish quarter, and continues to the heart of the city: Jemaa el-Fna Square. Storytellers, acrobats, Gnawa musicians, herbalists and henna artists form a living theater. We walk through the souks, with spices, copper lamps, embroidered fabrics and unique objects. We also visit a Berber pharmacy, with essential oils, argan soaps and traditional remedies. After lunch, we suggest an activity or an optional dinner with a show. Accommodation.

3

DAY 3

MARRAKESH-RABAT (320 KM)

Breakfast and departure for Rabat, the administrative capital, elegant and quiet, in contrast to the vitality of Marrakesh. On arrival, lunch on your own and a visit to its landmarks: the Hassan Tower and the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, guarded by the Royal Guard in dress uniform. We end with a walk through the Kasbah of the Udayas, with its white houses, where the alleys open onto a viewpoint over the Bou Regreg river. In the evening, dinner at a local restaurant. Accommodation.

4

DAY 4

RABAT-TANGIER (250 KM)

After breakfast, departure for Tangier, a cosmopolitan city full of legends. On arrival, check-in and a guided panoramic visit: Cape Spartel, where the Atlantic and the Mediterranean meet, and the Caves of Hercules, with an entrance shaped like a map of Africa (entrance not included). Afternoon free to stroll along the Corniche. Dinner and accommodation.

5

DAY 5

TANGIER

Breakfast. Free day. The main suggestion is the optional excursion to Chefchaouen, the blue city, in the Rif mountains. Its streets whitewashed in indigo blue, its fountains and its quiet pace make a living postcard. Return to Tangier in the afternoon. Dinner and accommodation.

6

DAY 6

TANGIER-VOLUBILIS-FEZ (300 KM)

Breakfast. Departure for Fez. First stop at Volubilis, the great Roman city of North Africa. We walk along the Decumanus Maximus to the Arch of Caracalla, among mosaics that still tell myths of gods and heroes. We continue to Meknes, the imperial city of Moulay Ismail, with the busy El Hedim square and the Bab Al-Mansour Gate, considered the most beautiful in the country. Arrival in Fez at dusk. Dinner and accommodation.

7

DAY 7

FEZ

Breakfast. Fez is a journey within the journey, a return to origins. After breakfast, we start with a panoramic view from the ramparts, to see the city spread out like a carpet. At our feet opens the medina of Fez el-Bali, the oldest and most monumental in Morocco, declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. The route starts at the Royal Palace, with its seven golden doors, and leads to Bab Boujloud, the blue gate, the entrance to the medieval labyrinth. Inside, more than 9,000 alleys intertwine: madrasas such as Bou Inania, with its Quranic inscriptions; funduqs where trade still goes on as in centuries past; quarters specialized in crafts that survive intact. We visit the Chouara tanneries, where leather is dyed in colorful vats with techniques that have not changed in a thousand years. We walk through the spice souks, the metalworkers' souks and the weavers' souks, where the hammer and the loom set the rhythm of the day. In Es-Seffarine square, we hear the metallic sound of coppersmiths working copper, as their ancestors did. Then lunch at a typical restaurant inside the medina, among mosaics, courtyards and fountains that recall the stately life of another era. The afternoon is free to return to the alleys, see carpet shops, watch Fez blue ceramic workshops or simply follow the rhythm of the city. Dinner on your own and accommodation.

8

DAY 8

FEZ-CASABLANCA-MARRAKESH (545 KM)

Breakfast. Long day on the road, with stops. In Casablanca, lunch on your own on the Corniche and an optional visit to the Hassan II Mosque, one of the largest in the world, with a 210 m minaret over the ocean. Travelers with a flight departing from Casablanca will be taken to the hotel. The others continue to Marrakesh to close the circuit. Dinner and accommodation.

9

DAY 9

MARRAKESH

Breakfast and departure transfer to the airport. End of services.
