- Theater of Epidaurus and Mycenae, with the Lion Gate and the Tomb of Agamemnon
- Ancient Olympic Stadium of Olympia and the archaeological site of Delphi, with the bronze Charioteer
- Two Meteora monasteries and Thermopylae, with the statue of Leonidas
- 4-day Aegean cruise with full board, departing from Lavrion to Mykonos
- Cruise stops in Kuşadası, Patmos, Rhodes, Heraklion and Santorini

Day by day

1

DAY 1

ATHENS

Arrival at Athens airport. Transfer to the hotel. Accommodation.

2

DAY 2

ATHENS

Accommodation and breakfast. In the morning, a panoramic tour of the city, with the Panathenaic Stadium of Athens, where the first Olympic Games of modern times took place (1896) (exterior visit). We continue along the main avenues of the center to see the most important buildings, such as the Parliament, the Catholic Church, the Numismatic Museum, the University, the Academy and the National Library. We then continue to the Sacred Rock of the Acropolis and experience the most moving moments of Athens' Golden Age. In the archaeological zone, we visit the Propylaea, the Ionic Temple of Athena Nike, the Erechtheion and the Parthenon. Rest of the time free.

3

DAY 3

ATHENS / EPIDAURUS / MYCENAE / OLYMPIA (417 KM)

Breakfast. Departure toward the Corinth Canal, where we make a short stop. We continue to the famous Theater of Epidaurus, known worldwide for its acoustics. Next, arrival in Mycenae, where we see the prehistoric Acropolis, with the Lion Gate and the tomb of Agamemnon. We visit the Mycenae Museum. In the afternoon, crossing the central Peloponnese, we reach Olympia. Dinner and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

OLYMPIA / DELPHI (239 KM)

Breakfast. We see the grounds of the ancient Olympic Stadium, where the first Olympic Games were held. Olympia was the most important sanctuary of the ancient Greeks, a place of worship of Zeus, first among the gods, in whose honor the Olympic Games were held. The importance of the games is clear from the mass participation of the Greek cities, which kept a truce while the celebration lasted, and from the fact that the Olympiad, the four-year period between two games, was recognized as the only chronological system accepted throughout Greece. Visit to the Olympia Museum. In the afternoon, passing the new suspension bridge, the largest in the world, we reach Delphi. Dinner and accommodation.

5

DAY 5

DELPHI / METEORA (182 KM)

Breakfast. In Delphi, a city known as the center of the world, we visit the local Museum, with its famous statue "The Bronze Charioteer", and the archaeological site. Then, departure for Meteora, passing through the village of Arachova. Arrival, dinner and accommodation in Kalambaka.

6

DAY 6

METEORA / ATHENS (357 KM)

Breakfast. Visit to two of the Meteora Monasteries. The Meteora are a group of tall, hard-to-reach rock pillars in the center of the Thessaly valley, formed by several geological processes. It is a unique geological phenomenon, creating an unmatched landscape in total harmony with the many monasteries built on top of the rocks. These pillars, with their truly peculiar shape, attracted the attention of ascetic monks in the mid-11th century. A century later, the ascetics organized themselves in the convent of Stagoi and called it Panayia Doupiani. From the 14th century, the first monasteries of the region began to be founded. Departure for Athens, passing through Thermopylae, where the statue of the Spartan king Leonidas stands. Arrival in Athens. Accommodation.

7

DAY 7

ATHENS

Accommodation and breakfast. Free day for personal activities.

8

DAY 8
