Day by day

1

DAY 1

DUBLIN

Arrival at Dublin airport. Transfer to the hotel. Rest of the day free. Dinner on your own and overnight stay at a hotel in County Dublin.

2

DAY 2

DUBLIN-BELFAST

Irish breakfast. Panoramic tour of Dublin, a city whose history goes back to Viking times. Along the way, we see some of the most emblematic places, such as Trinity College, Merrion Square, the Natural History Museum, the Four Courts, Phoenix Park, the Embassy district and its characteristic Georgian squares and houses. Departure for Northern Ireland. Arrival in Belfast and panoramic tour of the city. We see the City Hall, built in the early 20th century and located in the heart of the commercial center, and Queen's University, with its characteristic Tudor-style brick cloister. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

BELFAST-GIANT'S CAUSEWAY-DERRY-DONEGAL

Irish breakfast. Departure from Belfast along the Antrim coast to visit the Giant's Causeway and its visitor center. This singular landscape of hexagonal columns was formed about 60 million years ago by cooling lava and, according to legend, is linked to the confrontation between two giants. Continuation along the Antrim coast, passing Dunluce Castle, where we stop for photos. Its spectacular ruins were the residence of the McQuillan and McDonnell clans. Continuation to Derry, where we visit the city. Then departure for Donegal. Dinner and overnight stay in Donegal or nearby.

4

DAY 4

DONEGAL-CONNEMARA-GALWAY

Irish breakfast. Departure heading south, crossing the Connemara region, famous for the beauty of its lakes and mountains. Arrival at Kylemore Abbey, a magnificent mansion in the heart of Connemara, with its characteristic neo-Gothic church. The abbey is run by Irish Benedictine nuns. Continuation to Galway. Dinner and overnight stay in Galway or nearby.

5

DAY 5

GALWAY-CLIFFS OF MOHER-TIPPERARY/CARLOW

Irish breakfast. Visit to Galway, known as "the City of the Tribes" in reference to the 14 most important historic families of the region. Free time. Departure toward the Burren region, known as the "rocky desert", characterized by its singular limestone landscape. Continuation to the Cliffs of Moher, impressive formations that reach 214 meters in height and extend for about 8 km along the coast. Continuation to County Tipperary or Carlow. Dinner and overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

TIPPERARY/CARLOW-KILKENNY-DUBLIN

Irish breakfast. Departure toward Kilkenny, known as "the Marble City", a small medieval town full of historic buildings, shops, galleries and restaurants. The city grew around the old monastic site founded by Saint Canice, where St. Canice's Cathedral now stands, from the 13th century and a place of worship for more than 800 years. We also visit the gardens of Kilkenny Castle. Continuation to Dublin and visit to a whiskey distillery, where we learn about the production process and taste Irish whiskey. Then a walk through the famous Temple Bar area, one of the liveliest districts of the city, known for its atmosphere, art and entertainment. Overnight stay in Dublin or nearby.

7

DAY 7

DUBLIN

Irish breakfast. Transfer to the airport. End of services.
