Day by day

1

DAY 1

TROMSØ

Arrival in Tromsø, known as the capital of the Arctic. Transfer to the city center on the regular Airport Express service, which connects the airport to Tromsø in about 15 minutes. Transfer without assistance. Arrival and free time for hotel check-in and to start getting to know the city. Meeting with the tour leader, who gives information about the route and the departure times for the next day. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

TROMSØ-HARSTAD (FERRY)

Breakfast. Walk through the center of Tromsø with the guide, passing some of the most representative corners of the Arctic city. Free time to keep exploring. If you wish, you can visit the Arctic Cathedral or ride the Fjellheisen cable car, with views of Tromsø and its surroundings. Admissions and transfers not included. In the afternoon, walk to the port to board the ferry to Harstad. For about 3 hours, the sailing passes coastal landscapes of northern Norway, with islands, mountains and small seaside villages. Arrival in Harstad and transfer to the hotel on your own. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

HARSTAD-LOFOTEN ISLANDS-SVOLVÆR

Breakfast. Departure for the Lofoten Islands, following part of the E10 national tourist route, one of the most striking scenic roads in northern Norway. Along the way, landscapes of rugged mountains, fjords and fishing villages. Stop at the Austnesfjorden viewpoint. Continuation to Svolvær, considered the capital of the Lofoten Islands. Free time. In the afternoon, optional boat trip on the Trollfjord, one of the most spectacular fjords in the region, with a chance to see sea eagles in their natural environment. Dinner and overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

LOFOTEN ISLANDS

Breakfast. Day dedicated to seeing some of the best-known landscapes of the Lofoten Islands, an archipelago of mountains, white sand beaches and traditional fishing villages. Visit to the Lofotr Viking Museum, in Borg, where you learn about the history and traditions of the islands' ancient inhabitants and see the reconstruction of a Viking longhouse. Continuation through the archipelago, passing towns such as Leknes and Reine, one of the most photographed villages in Norway, known for its traditional fishermen's cabins and natural setting. There are also stops to see Ramberg beach, where the white sand contrasts with the turquoise water and the mountains. Return to Svolvær. Dinner and overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

SVOLVÆR-HENNINGSVÆR-KABELVÅG-STOKMARKNES (FERRY)

Breakfast. Departure for Henningsvær, one of the most charming fishing villages in the Lofoten Islands, built on small islands linked by bridges and surrounded by mountains. Free time to stroll the streets and experience the traditional seafaring atmosphere. Continuation to Kabelvåg, one of the oldest settlements in the region, tied to cod fishing. During the visit, exterior view of the village's characteristic church. Then continuation to Fiskebøl to board the ferry to Melbu, crossing to the Vesterålen archipelago. We continue to Stokmarknes, a town tied to the history of Norwegian coastal navigation. Optional experience on Sami culture, to learn about the traditions and customs of this indigenous people of northern Scandinavia. Overnight stay.

6

STOKMARKNES-ANDENES-SENJA ISLAND-TROMSØ (FERRY)

Breakfast. Departure for Andenes on a scenic route across the island of Andøya, passing the coastal town of Bleik, known for its beaches and Arctic landscapes. In Andenes, visit to the Whale Museum, about these great marine mammals and their relationship with the waters of northern Norway. Then board the ferry that connects Andenes to Gryllefjord, on the island of Senja. Continuation across the island, known for its rugged mountains, deep fjords and natural landscapes. Arrival in Tromsø in the late afternoon. In the evening, optional cruise under the midnight sun, to see the Arctic landscapes lit by the light of summer nights. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

TROMSØ

Breakfast. At the agreed time, transfer to Tromsø airport on the regular Airport Express service. Transfer without assistance. End of services.
