What you will experience

- Munich with Marienplatz, the Frauenkirche and the English Garden
- Neuschwanstein Castle, Oberammergau and the Benedictine abbey of Ettal
- Danube Valley with a stroll through Dürnstein and a traditional dinner with drinks in Vienna
- Vienna with the Belvedere Palace gardens, the Ringstrasse and the interior of St. Stephen's Cathedral
- Hallstatt, in the Salzkammergut, and Salzburg with Mirabell Palace and Mozart's residence
- Innsbruck with the Golden Roof and a ride up to the Nordkette Alps, with lunch at Seegrube

Day by day

1

DAY 1

MUNICH

Arrival in Munich, transfer to the hotel and overnight stay. The guide will be at the hotel from 7 pm.

2

DAY 2

MUNICH

Breakfast. Panoramic tour of Munich, the capital of Bavaria, on the banks of the Isar River. The tour starts at the medieval Karlstor gate and continues to St. Michael's Church, where the remains of King Ludwig II rest. We go on to Marienplatz to see the Town Hall, famous for its glockenspiel, and the Frauenkirche, where, according to legend, the Devil's footprint is preserved at the entrance. We also pass the Opera Square, the Feldherrnhalle, the Bürgersaalkirche, the Royal Residence and St. Peter's Church. We finish with a walk through the English Garden, one of the largest urban parks in Europe. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

MUNICH-NEUSCHWANSTEIN-MUNICH

Breakfast. Departure for Neuschwanstein Castle, commissioned by King Ludwig II of Bavaria. Inspired by the medieval castles of the Teutonic Knights, its interior recreates a world of legends and mythology. We continue to Oberammergau, known for its Passion Play, held every ten years since 1633. Next, a visit to the Benedictine abbey of Ettal. Return to Munich. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

MUNICH-DANUBE VALLEY-VIENNA

Breakfast. Departure for Vienna, crossing the Danube Valley, a region of great natural beauty, full of history and legends. On the way, a short walk through Dürnstein, a picturesque medieval village where King Richard the Lionheart was held prisoner in its castle, now in ruins. We continue to Vienna. In the evening, a typical dinner at a restaurant, with drinks included. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

VIENNA

Breakfast. Panoramic tour of Vienna, starting at the gardens of the historic Belvedere Palace, the former summer residence of Prince Eugene of Savoy, with fine views of the city. We continue along the Ringstrasse, with its grand buildings, such as the State Opera, the Museums of Art History and Natural History, the Maria Theresa Monument, the Austrian Parliament, the Town Hall, the National Theater and the Hofburg Palace. Walk through the picturesque streets of the historic center and visit the interior of St. Stephen's Cathedral, the largest in the city. We also pass the Anker Clock and the Jewish quarter. The tour ends at Maria-Theresien-Platz. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

VIENNA-HALLSTATT-SALZBURG

Breakfast and departure for one of the most beautiful regions of Austria: the Salzkammergut, famous for its mountains and lakes. We visit Hallstatt, a spectacular village whose charm and beauty have been replicated in China. We discover the unique local culture and the surrounding mountains. In the afternoon, we continue to Salzburg. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

SALZBURG

Breakfast and panoramic tour of Salzburg. We start at Mirabell Palace, built by Archbishop Wolf Dietrich for his wife and children, now the seat of the city hall. We continue along Schwarzstrasse, passing the Mozarteum (music university), the Marionette Theater, Mozart's residence and the Holy Trinity Church, in the market square. We cross the Salzach River on the way to Hellbrunn Palace, passing the courthouses, with a short stop. Back in the city center, we pass Frohnburg Palace and Nonnberg Abbey, the oldest convent of nuns in German-speaking countries. Before we finish, we see the Festspielhaus (home of the Salzburg Festival), the Horse Pond and St. Basil's Church. Free afternoon. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

SALZBURG-CRYSTAL WORLDS-INNSBRUCK

Breakfast and departure for Innsbruck, with a stop at Crystal Worlds, an exhibition created by multimedia artist André Heller, offering unique experiences with crystal in all its facets. We continue to Innsbruck. Overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

INNSBRUCK

Breakfast and tour of Innsbruck, capital of Tyrol and former residence of the Habsburgs. The city hosted the Winter Olympic Games twice. The tour includes the Triumphal Arch, the historic center, the Golden Roof, the Court Church, where the tomb of Emperor Maximilian I stands, surrounded by the famous black copper statues, and the Hofburg Palace. Then we go up to the Nordkette Alps. First, a funicular to Hungerburg (860 m); then a cable car to Seegrube (1,905 m), where lunch is included. Finally, we go up to Hafelekar (2,256 m), the highest point, with impressive views. In the afternoon, return to the hotel. Optionally, you can attend a show of traditional dances. Overnight stay.

10

DAY 10

INNSBRUCK-LIECHTENSTEIN-ZURICH

Breakfast and departure for Switzerland, with a stop in the Principality of Liechtenstein, the sixth smallest country in the world, between Austria and Switzerland. Liechtenstein combines impressive mountains, vibrant culture and picturesque villages. We continue to Zurich. Overnight stay.

11

DAY 11

ZURICH

Breakfast and city tour, highlighting the historic center, Zurich Cathedral, the old town hall and the St. Martin Gate. We pass the famous shopping avenue Bahnhofstrasse, the Fraumünster Church, the Limmatquai and the University district. Then we discover the world of chocolate at a Chocolate House, where we learn about its history and enjoy a tasting. Overnight stay.

12

DAY 12

ZURICH

Breakfast and transfer to the airport. End of our services.
