About the trip

Seven days across five German cities in the Christmas market season, with a bilingual Spanish-Portuguese guide. The itinerary passes through Rothenburg ob der Tauber, Nuremberg, Dresden and Berlin, with visits to the Christkindlesmarkt and the Striezelmarkt.

What you will experience

- Rothenburg ob der Tauber, on the Romantic Road, with a visit to the town and the Christmas market
- Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt and a panoramic tour of the old town, with the imperial castle
- Visit to a family bakery in Dresden to learn about Christstollen, the Christmas bread
- Panoramic tour of Dresden and a visit to the Striezelmarkt, which dates back to 1434
- Evening visit to a Berlin Christmas market
- Ride up the Berlin TV tower and a panoramic tour with the Brandenburg Gate and the remains of the Wall

Day by day

1

DAY 1

FRANKFURT

Arrival at Frankfurt airport and transfer to the hotel. Rest of the day free. Frankfurt is Germany's financial and commercial center. At this time of year, the city has several Christmas markets. We suggest using the free time to see those at Römerberg, Paulsplatz, Mainkai, Hauptwache or Friedrich-Stoltze-Platz. You can also visit the house of the famous poet Goethe or shop on the Zeil shopping street. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

FRANKFURT - ROTHENBURG OB DER TAUBER - NUREMBERG

Breakfast. Departure from Frankfurt for Rothenburg ob der Tauber, the most beautiful town on the famous Romantic Road. Its small streets and old houses recall the Middle Ages. Visit to the town and the Christmas market. In the afternoon, transfer to Nuremberg, a historic and cultural city with great charm, especially in winter. The Christkindlesmarkt Christmas market is the most famous in Germany, with almost 400 years of history and more than two million visitors a year. The decorated stalls offer crafts, sweets, Glühwein (mulled wine with spices) and other regional specialties. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

NUREMBERG - DRESDEN

Breakfast. In the morning, panoramic visit of Nuremberg, including the old town, where the main monuments stand. You can admire the castle, one of the most important imperial palaces of the Middle Ages, with incredible views of the city. In the afternoon, transfer to Dresden, one of Germany's main tourist destinations, on the banks of the Elbe river and at the gates of Saxon Switzerland, known for its magnificent architectural and artistic heritage. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

DRESDEN

Breakfast. In the morning, visit to a family-run pastry shop to learn all about Dresden's Christstollen, the traditional Christmas bread. Then a panoramic visit of the city. In the afternoon, visit to the famous Striezelmarkt, whose origin goes back to 1434, in the reign of Elector Frederick II. The name comes from the Striezel cake, also typical of Dresden. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

DRESDEN - BERLIN

Breakfast. Departure for Berlin, the German capital, one of the most vibrant cities in Europe. Berlin stands out for its cultural richness and the diversity of its monuments. In the evening, visit to one of its lively Christmas markets. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

BERLIN

Breakfast. In the morning, ride up the television tower, with a spectacular view of the city. Then a panoramic visit of Berlin, including the Unter den Linden avenue, the remains of the Wall, the Brandenburg Gate, the German Parliament and the modern Potsdamer Platz. Free afternoon to keep exploring the city and enjoy the Christmas atmosphere. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

BERLIN

Breakfast. Transfer to Berlin airport. End of our services.
