Day by day

1

DAY 1

STUTTGART

Arrival in Stuttgart. Optional private transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

STUTTGART - HEIDELBERG - STUTTGART (TRAIN)

Breakfast. Free time to explore the city and the Christmas market at your own pace. More than 300 carefully decorated stalls, and the smell of punch and freshly baked cakes, make the Stuttgart Christmas market one of the most beautiful and largest in Europe. Train ride to Heidelberg, a city of great beauty, with a strong medieval influence in its architecture. The Christmas market has about 140 stalls with gift ideas. For those who want to practice sports or ice skate in front of the romantic castle, Karlsplatz has one of the most beautiful ice rinks in Germany. Return by train to Stuttgart. Overnight stay.

DAY 3

STUTTGART - BADEN-BADEN - STUTTGART (TRAIN)

Breakfast. Train ride to Baden-Baden. The elegant spa town has gardens and grand villas. There are the Roman ruins and the complex of one of the oldest baths in Germany. Worth seeing are the architecture of the famous, refined casino and the old train station turned into a theater, home to internationally renowned festivals. Surrounded by the Black Forest mountains, the traditional Christkindelsmarkt of Baden-Baden has many attractions and creates a fairy-tale winter atmosphere. The aroma of mulled wine and gingerbread accompanies the walk past more than 100 carefully decorated stalls, at the start of Lichtentaler Allee park. Return by train to Stuttgart. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

STUTTGART

Breakfast. For those with time, we recommend an optional visit to the Esslingen Christmas market, known for its medieval atmosphere. Optional private transfer to the airport. End of our services.
