Day by day

1

DAY 1

BERLIN

Arrival at Berlin Brandenburg Willy Brandt international airport. Welcome and assisted transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

BERLIN

Breakfast. In the morning, panoramic visit to get acquainted with the main monuments and historic places of the city, until recently divided and a symbol of German reunification. You see the Brandenburg Gate, the Parliament or Reichstag, Potsdamer Platz, Alexanderplatz, Kurfürstendamm avenue and the remains of the wall that divided the city until 1989. In December, you can visit some of the city's traditional Christmas markets, such as the one at Gendarmenmarkt, one of the most celebrated. Free afternoon, with an optional excursion to the Sachsenhausen concentration camp. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

BERLIN-DRESDEN-PRAGUE (345 KM)

Breakfast. Departure for the region of Saxony, to Dresden, its former capital on the banks of the Elbe river, a cultural city that was reborn after the bombings of World War II. Free time to walk the historic center and, if you wish, visit the traditional Striezelmarkt Christmas market, one of the oldest in Germany. Continue to the Czech Republic and Prague. Panoramic visit of the city passing the Old Town Square with the Town Hall, the famous Astronomical Clock of 1410, whose figures move every hour, the Tyn Church, St. Nicholas Church, the Powder Tower, Wenceslas Square and the State Theater. Overnight stay. (The panoramic visit may take place on Friday for reasons of force majeure.)

4

DAY 4

PRAGUE

Breakfast. Free day to keep exploring the city or join an optional visit to Castle Hill, home to St. Vitus Cathedral, Golden Lane, the Imperial Palace and the Church of Our Lady Victorious, famous for housing the statue of the Infant Jesus of Prague, ending at Charles Bridge. In December, it is worth visiting the Christmas market on Old Town Square, with lights and traditional stalls. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

PRAGUE-BRATISLAVA-BUDAPEST (533 KM)

Breakfast. Departure for Brno and continue to Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia. Short stop to stroll through the charming streets, see the popular sculptures, St. Martin's Church and St. Michael's Gate. At this time of year, if the calendar allows, you can enjoy the festive atmosphere of the Christmas market on Main Square. Continue to Hungary and Budapest. Overnight stay. Free time, with an optional night excursion to see Budapest lit up from Gellért Hill, plus a boat ride on the Danube.

6

DAY 6

BUDAPEST

Breakfast. Panoramic visit of the city, the result of the union in 1873 of the former Buda and Pest, also known as the Pearl of the Danube. We tour the Buda side, with Castle Hill, the Royal Palace, Matthias Church and the Fisherman's Bastion, and the Pest side, modern and commercial, home to the Parliament, St. Stephen's Basilica and Heroes' Square. In your free time, visit the traditional Advent market on Vörösmarty Square, recognized as one of the most beautiful in Central Europe. In the evening, optional folk dinner with typical Hungarian cuisine and a show of traditional dances. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

BUDAPEST-VIENNA (250 KM)

Breakfast. Departure for the Austrian border and on to Vienna. Visit to the former capital of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, passing the imperial Hofburg zone, Heroes' Square, St. Stephen's Cathedral, the Ringstrasse avenue with the Opera, the Parliament, the City Hall and the Danube river. Stop at the Belvedere Palace to see the gardens. The visit ends in the Opera area. At this time of year, Vienna fills with Christmas markets, such as the one in front of the City Hall, with traditional stalls, ornaments, sweets and Advent music. In the afternoon, the chance to attend, as an option, a concert of waltzes and polkas in a Viennese palace, with works by Strauss and Mozart. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

VIENNA

Accommodation and breakfast. Free day to keep enjoying the city's Christmas markets, strolling through the historic center and its elegant avenues.
