Day by day

1

DAY 1

MUMBAI

Arrival in Mumbai. Assistance and transfer to the hotel. Overnight. Mumbai (also known as Bombay) is the capital of the state of Maharashtra and the most important port city of the subcontinent. The name comes from the local goddess Mumba Devi. From 1626 to 1995 it was called Bombay, the traditional name. It is the main economic center of India and home to the largest film industry in the world. It is also a communications hub and an important cultural center, with many universities, theaters, museums and galleries. The Metropolitan Region has almost 20 million inhabitants. In India no authorities register where citizens live, so population figures are estimates based on the general censuses.

2

DAY 2

MUMBAI-UDAIPUR (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. In the morning, a panoramic tour of Haji Ali, Flora Fountain, the Central Library, Marine Drive, a photo stop at the Laundry, the train station and the Gateway of India. Transfer to the airport for the flight to Udaipur, one of the most beautiful cities in Rajasthan, surrounded by a wall with five gates and set beside Lake Pichola. Arrival and transfer to the hotel. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

3

DAY 3

UDAIPUR

Breakfast. Next, a visit to the City Palace, the richest palace-museum in all of Rajasthan. Continuation with the Garden of the Maidens, or Sahelion ki Bari, where the maharaja Sangram Singh built a complex of gardens with fountains and lakes for his beautiful daughter. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

4

DAY 4

UDAIPUR-RANAKPUR-JODHPUR

Breakfast. Departure for Jodhpur, with visits along the way to Eklingji and Nagda and to the Jain temple of Adinath in Ranakpur, built in the 15th century and with impressive marble carvings. Then departure for Jodhpur. Arrival, dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

5

DAY 5

JODHPUR-JAIPUR

Breakfast. Around 8:30 am, a visit to Jaswant Thada and Mehrangarh Fort. Walk down from the fort to the clock tower. Then departure by road for Jaipur, the capital of Rajasthan. Jaipur was built in 1728 by order of the maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II. The city is known as the Pink City because most of its buildings were built with pinkish sandstone. In Jaipur, Hindu, Jain and Mughal architectural styles combine. Arrival in Jaipur and transfer to the hotel. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

6

DAY 6

JAIPUR-AMBER-JAIPUR

Breakfast. In the morning, an excursion to Amber Fort, the former capital of the state until 1728. Ride on elephant back to the top of the hill where the fort stands. Next, a panoramic visit of Jaipur (named after the maharaja Jai Singh, a prince and astronomer, who designed and founded the city in 1727). Visit to the astronomical observatory built by the monarch himself, with instruments he designed. Visit to the Maharaja's Palace, the former royal residence and now a museum. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

7

DAY 7

JAIPUR-FATEHPUR SIKRI-AGRA

Breakfast. Departure for Fatehpur Sikri, the dead city, built by the emperor Akbar in 1569 and abandoned for lack of a water supply. The buildings are very well preserved, especially the Jama Masjid mosque, the tomb of Salim Chisti, the Panch Mahal and other sites. Continuation to Agra. Visit to the city and the Taj Mahal, one of the most important monuments in the world, built by the emperor Shah Jehan in 1630 as a mausoleum for his queen, Mumtaz Mahal. Built entirely in white marble, by artisans from Persia, the Ottoman Empire, France and Italy, with the help of 20,000 workers who took 17 years to complete it (the Taj Mahal closes on Fridays, a Muslim holy day. If the day of the visit falls on a Friday, the Taj Mahal will be visited early the next morning). Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

8

DAY 8

AGRA-DELHI

Breakfast. Departure by road for Delhi, the modern capital of India, a very old city whose origins are lost in legend. Hundreds of monuments adorn it, with its long history. Several Hindu and Muslim dynasties ruled India from here, among them the Mughals. At least 7 successive cities existed there before the arrival of the British, who created, through Sir Edwin Lutyens, their dreamed-of capital. In the afternoon, a visit to the Akshardham Temple. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

9

DAY 9

DELHI

Breakfast. Visit to the Jama Masjid, the largest mosque in India, and to Raj Ghat, where Gandhi was cremated. Next, a panoramic drive past the government buildings along Raj Path and the Gateway of India. Also a visit to the Birla Temple, the Sikh Temple and the Qutub Minar minaret, a World Heritage Site. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

10

DAY 10

DELHI

Breakfast. At the scheduled time, transfer to the airport for the return flight. End of services.

Meals included: breakfast
