Day by day

1

DAY 1

LIMA

Arrival in Lima. Welcome and assistance with the transfer to the hotel. At the agreed time, we will tour the historic center of Lima to see and admire the architectural relics of old Lima, recognized by UNESCO as a World Cultural Heritage site. The Santo Domingo convent is the starting point. Built when Lima was founded, this complex is where the University of San Marcos was established, the oldest in the Americas. Inside, the highlights are the choir, with the oldest choir stalls in the country, and the library, with 25,000 books, some printed in the 15th century, of incalculable historical value. The convent also holds the remains of Saint Martin de Porres, Saint John Macías and Saint Rose of Lima. Crossing the Plaza Mayor, past the Government Palace and the Municipal Palace, we will enter the cathedral, a landmark of Lima's history, with works of art that bring us closer to colonial Lima. We will then leave the center for the Larco Museum, where we will get a clear picture of the cultures that populated ancient Peru. The gold pieces, textiles and erotic ceramics stand out, part of a collection that introduces us to the worldview of the ancient Peruvians. During the visit, the museum's storage room will be open so you can appreciate the artistic expressions recorded in its ceramics. Overnight stay.

DAY 2

LIMA-CUSCO (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. Departure for Cusco (airfare not included). Arrival, assistance and transfer to the hotel. At the agreed time, departure for the Sacsayhuamán Archaeological Park, where we will start the tour of the fortress of the same name, a beautiful, peaceful place where we will see the enormous rocks, up to 4 meters high, used in its construction. We will continue to Q'enqo, the old Temple of the Puma, where a sacrificial altar can be seen inside an enormous rock, and then on to Tambomachay, sacred springs of life and health. On the way, we will have a panoramic view of Puca Pucará, a watchtower that guarded the entrance to the city. Then we will go to the Qorikancha Temple of the Sun, on which the Santo Domingo convent was built. Legend says this temple was entirely covered in gold sheets, which dazzled the conquistadors when they arrived. To finish, we will see the Plaza de Armas and enter the cathedral, which holds colonial works and paintings of incalculable value, such as the cross that arrived with the first conquistadors. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast

3

DAY 3

CUSCO-SACRED VALLEY

Breakfast. Today we will visit the most notable sites of the Sacred Valley of the Incas. We will head to the town of Chinchero, the most typical and picturesque in the valley, famous for its weaving women. We will make a short stop at a textile center to learn about the ancient Inca techniques of dyeing and spinning alpaca wool. We will visit its Inca square and its beautiful colonial church. We will continue to Moray, a beautiful Inca archaeological site made up of concentric agricultural terraces that served as a laboratory for recreating microclimates. Lunch. Afterward, we will go on to Ollantaytambo, considered the last living Inca town. We will visit the Temple of the Ten Windows, the Baths of the Ñusta and the Temple of the Sun. The views from the heights of Ollantaytambo close this day in the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Overnight stay in the area.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

4

DAY 4

SACRED VALLEY-MACHU PICCHU (TRAIN)-CUSCO

Breakfast. Departure for the Ollantaytambo station to board the selected train to Machu Picchu. Arrival and assistance from our team to board the bus that climbs a winding road, with a spectacular view of the Urubamba River, which forms a deep canyon. The lost citadel of the Incas, Machu Picchu, welcomes us with its terraces, stairways, ceremonial areas and urban sectors. Energy flows from the whole place. Lunch. At the agreed time, return by train and transfer to the hotel in Cusco. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

5

DAY 5

CUSCO-PUNO

Breakfast. Departure by tourist bus for the city of Puno, along a scenic route that follows the Vilcanota River before entering the Collao plateau, the Andean altiplano. The first stop is the church of San Pedro Apóstol de Andahuaylillas, known as the Sistine Chapel of the Americas, with walls and ceilings covered in 17th-century murals. We continue to Racchi, the temple of the god Wiracocha, where the remains of columns and walls give an idea of the monumental size of this Inca building. Our route reaches its highest point at La Raya, at 4,800 m above sea level, where the Titicaca basin divides from the rivers that flow into the Amazon. Lunch. Visit to the Pucará site museum, in the town that is the birthplace of the famous Pucará bulls. Arrival in Puno and transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

6

DAY 6

PUNO-LA PAZ

Breakfast. We will sail on Lake Titicaca, the highest navigable lake in the world. Very early departure by road to the city of Copacabana. Visit to the Sanctuary of the Virgin of Copacabana (the Dark Virgin). Boarding a catamaran to cross the sacred lake. We will visit the legendary Island of the Sun, the Inca's garden and the stairs that lead to the famous Inca spring. Next, we will enter the Inti Wata complex, where we will see some of the archaeological remains found on the island. We will have a sailing experience on a totora reed boat, from which we will see the Pilkokaina palace. Lunch on board the catamaran, with a view of the lake. Continuation to the port of Chua. Arrival and transfer to La Paz. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast and lunch

7

DAY 7

LA PAZ

Breakfast. We will start the city tour with an authentic look at local culture in the typical healers' market. We will pass in front of the colonial church of San Francisco and continue to Murillo Square, where the metropolitan cathedral, the Government Palace and the Parliament stand. Then we will walk along the famous Jaén Street, home to some of the most important museums in La Paz. The visit continues through the residential areas of Obrajes, Calacoto and La Florida, ending at the Moon Valley, a nearby geological formation that has always drawn the interest of visitors to the city. Free time. Overnight stay.

Meals included: breakfast

8

DAY 8

LA PAZ-LIMA (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. Departure for Lima (airfare not included). Arrival. End of services.

Meals included: breakfast
