DAY 2

RABAT-FEZ (210 KM)

Breakfast. Rabat is an important and beautiful city that conveys calm and elegance. We will visit its main sights, such as the Hassan Tower, an unfinished mosque that dominates the esplanade with more than 200 columns, and the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, built in memory of the sultan who won the country's independence, where the royal guard, in full dress, watches the entrance of the monument on horseback. Continue to Fez, the intellectual and religious capital of Morocco. Panoramic drive to see the royal palace and its 7 gates, or Dar Al-Makhzen, on the way to the Fez El Bali medina, the oldest and largest in Morocco, a UNESCO World Heritage site, with 785 mosques and more than 2,000 squares, streets and alleys that form a labyrinth back in time. From Bab Boujloud to Es-Seffarine Square, we will travel through the centuries, from the 9th to the 19th. Along the walk, we will see how the alleys are organized, the different buildings that form the walls of the medina, the craftsmen's guilds and districts such as the tanners' and the tailors' quarters, to learn about their old ways of working. We will see a madrasa and finish to the sound of the hammers of the artisans who work copper as they did hundreds of years ago. Lunch included at a typical restaurant. Overnight stay.

The town was founded in 1471 to protect against the Portuguese invasion, until Moriscos and Jews settled there, after the Spanish Reconquista, in medieval times. It was during the Spanish protectorate that the Spanish army occupied the city for good, until northern Morocco became independent, around 1958. Departure for Tangier. Dinner and overnight stay.
