Today, the "City of Eternal Spring" is one of the most innovative cities in the world. Join us on a tour of the history and present of Medellín. Learn about the transformation of this fascinating metropolis while using a very innovative transport system in the economically poorest neighborhoods. Visit downtown Medellín. See Medellín's newest invention: the escalators of Comuna 13. Find out what the people of Medellín think about the city's history. Return to the hotel. Free afternoon. Overnight.
