- Tour of the Isle of Skye, with the Cuillin Hills, Mealt Falls and Kilt Rock
- Glencoe Valley, Loch Lomond and Stirling Castle, with ticket included

Day by day

1

DAY 1

EDINBURGH

Arrival in Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland. Transfer to the hotel. Accommodation.

2

DAY 2

EDINBURGH

Breakfast. Departure at 8:20 am for the city tour, with a ticket to Edinburgh Castle. Afternoon free, with the chance to explore the elegant Georgian New Town of the 17th century and the historic Old Town. Edinburgh is considered the second most visited city in the United Kingdom, after London, and has been the seat of the Scottish Parliament since 1999. The Parliament building is imposing, and the green area of the Princes Street Gardens is worth a visit. Accommodation.

3

DAY 3

EDINBURGH / FIFE / ST. ANDREWS / DUNDEE / GLAMIS CASTLE / ABERDEEN

Breakfast. Departure at 8:20 am heading north, crossing the famous Forth Bridge, with panoramic views of the Firth of Forth. The route continues through the Kingdom of Fife to St. Andrews, known worldwide as the birthplace of golf and home of the oldest university in Scotland, where Prince William and Kate Middleton studied. St. Andrews Cathedral and Castle are seen from outside, before continuing to the coastal city of Dundee, where there is free time for lunch. Departure from Dundee to the north, on the way to Glamis Castle, the family home of the Queen Mother and birthplace of Princess Margaret, sister of Queen Elizabeth II. Glamis is a fine example of a fortified castle, to which later additions were made to turn it into a stately residence. Visit to Glamis Castle. Before reaching Aberdeen, stop for photos at Dunnottar Castle, on the coastal cliffs. Dinner and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

ABERDEEN / ELGIN / WHISKY TRAIL / INVERNESS / HIGHLANDS

Breakfast. Leaving the port city of Aberdeen, the group passes the cathedral and the university in the old town and continues through the Highlands to Elgin. In Elgin, visit to the beautiful medieval cathedral, followed by a whisky tasting. Free time for lunch. On the way, a short stop at the Culloden battlefield, before continuing to Inverness, the capital of the Highlands. Panoramic walking tour of the city, along the main streets, crossing the River Ness and admiring the castle. Dinner and accommodation.

5

DAY 5

HIGHLANDS / LOCH NESS / ISLE OF SKYE / WEST COAST OF SCOTLAND

Breakfast. Departure for Loch Ness, in search of its ancient resident, "Nessie". The loch is seen from the shore, where there is a visit to the ruins of Urquhart Castle, overlooking the water. The route continues along the shore of the loch heading west, passing the romantic Eilean Donan Castle, until reaching the Isle of Skye. The tour around the island shows spectacular scenery, with views of the Cuillin Hills, and reaches the Mealt Falls and Kilt Rock. Dinner and accommodation.

6

DAY 6

WEST COAST OF SCOTLAND / ISLE OF SKYE / GLENCOE / LAKES REGION

Breakfast. Departure from the Isle of Skye. The crossing to the mainland is by ferry between Armadale and Mallaig or, if that service does not operate, by road over the Skye Bridge, which links the island to the mainland and also shows the typical landscapes of the region. The trip continues south by land, passing Fort William, a town at the foot of Ben Nevis, the highest mountain in the British Isles. Entry into the historic and beautiful Glencoe Valley, setting of the tragic Glencoe massacre of 1692. The road passes the Buachaille Etive Mòr mountains, with views of snowy peaks and green valleys, and reaches the shores of Loch Awe, with crystal-clear waters surrounded by mountains and woods. Arrival in the village of Inveraray, known for Inveraray Castle, ancestral home of Clan Campbell. Dinner and accommodation.

7

DAY 7

LAKES REGION / LOCH LOMOND / STIRLING / EDINBURGH

Breakfast. The route runs along Loch Fyne, known for its oysters and spectacular scenery. It continues southeast to the shores of Loch Lomond, the largest lake in Great Britain and one of the most attractive places in Scotland. The group then heads east to the historic town of Stirling, where one of the main clashes of the wars of independence between Scotland and England took place. In 1297, William Wallace led the Scottish army to victory at the Battle of Stirling Bridge (made famous by the film Braveheart) and became the undisputed leader of the resistance against the English. Visit to Stirling Castle, on a rocky promontory that dominates the region, with panoramic views. Return to Edinburgh. Accommodation.

8

DAY 8

EDINBURGH

Breakfast. Free time until the transfer to the airport. End of services.

Prices in reais at today's exchange rate, travel exchange rate based on the Travelex average for October 2026 (Central Bank of Brazil), over the PTAX selling rate of 11/27/2026.

You pay TWTS in Brazilian reais, by Pix, bank transfer or credit card. The price in foreign currency is the market reference, converted at the exchange rate on the day you pay.

- City Tax: in Edinburgh and Aberdeen, it is already included in the tour price. If other places start charging a tax after the program is published, the client must pay it directly. Demand in Scotland and on the Isle of Skye: In summer, it is not always possible to guarantee a hotel on the island. On some departures, the group stays in the Gairloch area, and the itinerary is adapted to keep as much visiting time on Skye as possible. The change may be communicated up to 30 days before departure. High season changes: between June and September, hotels may be replaced by others of the same or similar category. The route may also be done in the opposite direction, without removing the planned visits. Hotels in Scotland: they are usually 3 or 4-star hotels, but some may not have an elevator, air conditioning or adapted rooms. The weather is usually mild and rarely exceeds 25 °C.
