Day by day

1

DAY 1

ROME

Arrival at Rome airport. Group transfer (with other participants) to the hotel. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

ROME

Breakfast. Rome's historic center was made for unhurried strolls, with endless cobblestone streets and picturesque squares lined with lively cafés. Baroque churches, fountains and palaces built during the Renaissance are scattered everywhere. At the Trevi Fountain, according to legend, you must throw a coin into the fountain to return to Rome, two coins to fall in love with an Italian and a third to marry one. Then walk to the Column of Marcus Aurelius and continue to the Palazzo di Montecitorio, an elegant palace designed by Bernini and now used as the seat of parliament. We continue with the Pantheon of Rome, whose interior is the best preserved in the city and holds several tombs of illustrious Italians, such as the Renaissance genius Raphael. From Piazza della Rotonda we go on to Piazza Navona, to admire its splendid Bernini fountains. Free time. In the afternoon, visit to the Vatican Museums (skip the line), the second largest art museum in size and the fifth most visited in the world, home to the famous Sistine Chapel and the Raphael Rooms. You can explore on your own some of the most famous masterpieces in the world, created by Michelangelo, Raphael, Caravaggio, Leonardo da Vinci and many others. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

ROME / LORETO

Breakfast. Transfer to the Roma Tiburtina bus station, to leave for Loreto. (Trip duration: about 4 hours, on a comfortable coach with water, coffee and Wi-Fi on board.) Arrival in Loreto, at Piazza Giacomo Leopardi, and own transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

LORETO

Overnight stay and breakfast. Free day to visit the capital of Marian worship. Loreto appears from afar as a city shaped like a shrine, protected by bastions and walls from 1500. The history of the Shrine begins in the 13th century (10 December 1294), with the arrival of the house inhabited by the family of the Virgin Mary in Nazareth. This precious relic was carried to Italy after the fall of the Crusader Kingdom in the Holy Land. The heart of the city is the Piazza della Madonna. Adorned by an imposing 17th-century fountain, the square lies at the foot of the Basilica, built between the late Gothic and Renaissance periods. Inside, under the grand dome, is the sacred relic: the house where Mary received the announcement of the archangel Gabriel. Protected on the outside by a beautiful marble wall designed by Bramante, it holds inside the Black Madonna, with her traditional dalmatic. We also advise visiting the Museum-Picture Gallery, which keeps, among its works, 8 paintings by Lorenzo Lotto, an important collection of ceramics and relics. The museum is in the Apostolic Palace, the building that bounds the Piazza della Madonna to the northwest. The visit to Loreto can continue with a stroll through the shops of Corso Boccalini. Finally, we recommend seeing the apses from Piazzale Loreto and enjoying the view of Piazza John XXIII.
