- Sacsayhuamán, Q'enqo, Puca Pucará and Tambomachay, on the outskirts of Cusco
- Sacred Valley with Chinchero, Moray and Ollantaytambo
- Machu Picchu with a round-trip train ride from Ollantaytambo
- Two free days in Paracas, with the option to sail to the Ballestas Islands

Day by day

1

DAY 1

LIMA

Arrival in Lima. Welcome and assistance with the transfer to the hotel. At the agreed time, tour of the historic center of Lima, to see the architectural relics of old Lima, recognized by UNESCO as a World Cultural Heritage Site. The Santo Domingo convent is the starting point. Built when Lima was founded, it is where the University of San Marcos, the oldest in the Americas, was born. Inside, the choir stands out, with the oldest choir stalls in the country, and the library, with 25,000 books, some printed in the 15th century, of incalculable historical value. The convent also holds the remains of Saint Martin de Porres, Saint John Macías and Saint Rose of Lima. After crossing the Plaza Mayor, the Government Palace and the Municipal Palace, enter the cathedral, a jewel of Lima's history, with works of art that bring you close to colonial Lima. Departure from the center to the Larco Museum, which gives a clear view of the cultures that populated ancient Peru. The gold pieces, textiles and erotic ceramics are part of a collection that presents the worldview of the ancient Peruvian. During the visit, the museum's storage is open to see the artistic expressions of the ceramics. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

LIMA / CUSCO (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. Departure for Cusco (airfare not included). Arrival, assistance and transfer to the hotel. In the afternoon, an exclusive city tour, which starts with a visit to San Cristóbal square, with a panoramic view of the city. Continue to the San Pedro market, to see the products of the region and the local atmosphere of this traditional market that supplies the city. Then visit the Qorikancha temple, in all its magnificence, with walls that were once covered in gold. From San Blas, the artisans' neighborhood, walk down Hatun Rumiyoc street, with the palace of Inca Roca, now the Archbishop's Palace, and time to admire the world-famous Stone of Twelve Angles. Then the Plaza de Armas, to visit the cathedral, which holds colonial works of great value. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

CUSCO

Breakfast. In the morning, away from the crowds, visit Sacsayhuamán, an imposing citadel of colossal constructions, surrounded by beautiful landscapes in full harmony with the surroundings. Continue to the Inca sanctuary of Q'enqo, where the sacrificial altar built into the rock formation stands out. Finally, arrival at the Puca Pucará lookout and Tambomachay, a monument of remarkable architecture, considered one of the pillars of the Andean worldview. Free time for additional activities or to walk the streets of Cusco. The entrance pass included in this trip gives access to other places of interest not visited. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

CUSCO / SACRED VALLEY

Breakfast. Today, visit the most notable places in the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Departure for the village of Chinchero, the most typical and picturesque in the valley, famous for its weavers. Short stop at a textile center to learn the ancient Inca techniques of dyeing and spinning alpaca wool. Visit the Inca square and the beautiful colonial church. Continue to Moray, an Inca archaeological site made of concentric agricultural terraces that served as a laboratory to recreate microclimates. Lunch. Then Ollantaytambo, considered the last living Inca town. Visit the Temple of the Ten Windows, the baths of the Ñusta and the Temple of the Sun. The views from the heights of Ollantaytambo close the day in the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Overnight stay in the region.

5

DAY 5

SACRED VALLEY / MACHU PICCHU (TRAIN) / CUSCO

Breakfast. Departure for Ollantaytambo station to board the selected train to Machu Picchu. Arrival and assistance from our team to board the bus that climbs a winding road, with a spectacular view of the Urubamba River, which forms a deep canyon. The lost citadel of the Incas, Machu Picchu, welcomes visitors with its terraces, stairways, ceremonial areas and urban areas. Lunch. At the agreed time, return by train and transfer to the hotel in Cusco. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

CUSCO / LIMA (FLIGHT) / PARACAS

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. Departure for Lima (airfare not included). Arrival, assistance and transfer to the bus station. Departure by executive bus to Paracas Bay. Arrival, assistance and transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

PARACAS

Breakfast. Free day to enjoy the sun in this beautiful nature reserve. Paracas is a refuge of unique marine life. On the Ballestas Islands and the cliffs of the peninsula, birds nest, sea lions rest and Humboldt penguins live. We recommend using the morning to sail to these islands. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

PARACAS

Breakfast. Free day. 215 km south of Paracas lie the enigmatic Nazca lines, a chance to see them from above. We suggest a flight from Pisco airport, about 20 minutes from the hotel. Overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

PARACAS / LIMA

Breakfast. Departure by bus to Lima. Arrival and transfer to the airport. End of services.

-  MINIMUM OF 2 PEOPLE: FOR A SINGLE TRAVELER, PLEASE ASK ***
- Machu Picchu has limited spaces, access in shifts and a maximum stay of 2 and a half hours, so the traveler's full details are required when booking. The visit follows a set route: climbing on walls, resting on stairways or terraces, and using poles or drones are not allowed. We offer an exclusive operation in the city of Cusco. The visit to the city and the Sacsayhuamán Archaeological Park is done in two half-day periods, which lets you see corners that the traditional visitor does not walk. This operation keeps visitors away from the crowds and gives the time needed to walk each archaeological site and each church calmly. The Cessna Grand Caravan aircraft follow strict flight safety protocols and measures to protect health on board. Each aircraft holds 12 passengers, with a maximum total weight of 800 kilos when full. The weight of each traveler must be reported in advance and will be checked on a scale at the airport before boarding. The flight from Pisco lasts 1 hour and 45 minutes in total, including the trip to the Nazca pampas.
