BANGKOK

After breakfast, visit to three of the most popular Buddhist temples, starting with Wat Traimit. Located at the edge of Chinatown, on Yaowarat Road, near the Hualampong train station, Wat Traimit houses the largest solid gold Buddha in the world, almost five meters tall and weighing five and a half tons. We continue to Wat Pho, the largest temple in Bangkok, the temple of the Reclining Buddha and the Chedis of the Kings. It is one of the largest temples in the city and famous for the giant Reclining Buddha, which is 46 meters long and covered in gold. Next, a visit to the Royal Palace, the city's most famous monument, built in 1782 and, for 150 years, home of the King of Thailand, the royal court and the administrative seat of the government. Inside the complex is Wat Phra Kaew, or the Temple of the Emerald Buddha (officially known as Wat Phra Sri Rattana Satsadaram), considered the most important Buddhist temple in Thailand, which houses the most revered Buddha, carved from a single block of jade. Free afternoon. Accommodation.

DAY 4

BANGKOK-CHIANG RAI (FLIGHT)

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for the flight to Chiang Rai (air ticket not included). Arrival in Chiang Rai (on a flight arriving by 10:00 am). We continue to Chui Fong, a tea plantation. In a setting surrounded by plantations on the slopes of small hills, you can taste tea ice cream and tea cake (at your choice) and have lunch at a nearby local restaurant. We pass the Opium House museum before continuing to the Mae Chan district, north of Chiang Rai. Continuing on foot, we climb the hills along narrow streets to visit a village of the Akha and Yao ethnic minorities. The last stop of the day is one of the Karen villages, a tribe originally from Tibet that migrated to what is now Myanmar about two thousand years ago. The tribe is best known for the Kayan women, a subgroup of the Po (Red Karen), whose necks are adorned with brass rings and who are nicknamed "giraffe women". Transfer to the hotel. Accommodation.

DAY 5

CHIANG RAI-CHIANG MAI

Breakfast. Transfer to the pier for a "longtail" boat trip along the lower Kok River, visiting the Karen and other hill tribes. Passing small villages, bamboo huts and dense forest, we explore the region before reaching the pier. We continue with a visit to Wat Rong Suea Tean (the Blue Temple), another modern and unusual Buddhist temple, which stands out for its intense blue color and elaborate statues. Next, we visit the famous Wat Rong Khun (the White Temple). After the visit, we travel from Chiang Rai to Chiang Mai by road (approx. 3 hrs). Arrival in Chiang Mai and lunch at a local restaurant. We visit the Wat Doi Suthep complex, a large temple at 1,000 meters of altitude, on the slopes of a forest-covered mountain. The climb takes 306 steps, with handrails shaped like Naga serpents, and the temple offers a panoramic view of the city, as well as a great variety of images and frescoes, for those who take on the climb.
