About the trip

Nine days from Milan to Rome, passing through Verona, Venice, Florence, Cinque Terre, Pisa, Siena and Assisi. Includes a Spanish-speaking tour leader, a local guide in Milan, Venice and Florence, 7 dinners and a ferry trip to Murano and Burano.

What you will experience

- Milan on foot with a local guide: Teatro alla Scala, Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II and the Cathedral from the outside
- Sirmione, on Lake Garda, and Verona, of the Arena and Romeo and Juliet
- Venice on foot with a local guide and a ferry excursion to Murano and Burano
- Florence with the Piazza della Signoria, the Palazzo Vecchio and the Ponte Vecchio
- Cinque Terre by boat or train, with Vernazza or Monterosso, and the Leaning Tower of Pisa
- Siena, San Gimignano and Chianti, and the Basilicas of St. Clare and St. Francis, in Assisi

Day by day

1

DAY 1

MILAN

Arrival at Milan airport. Group transfer (with other participants) to the hotel. Dinner and accommodation.

2

DAY 2

MILAN

Breakfast. Half-day panoramic walking tour of Italy's economic capital: Piazza dei Mercanti, the medieval heart of the city, and the Teatro alla Scala, an opera house and monument of music. We enter the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, a 19th-century engineering work and a symbol of Italy. Finally, we see the Cathedral (outside visit), the third largest in Europe. Free afternoon. Dinner and overnight.

3

DAY 3

MILAN-SIRMIONE (Lake Garda)-VERONA-VENICE

Breakfast. Departure for Lake Garda, in particular Sirmione: an ancient town with stone streets and historic monuments. Free time to visit the town, the beautiful Roman villa and/or the Grottoes of Catullus (Grotte di Catullo). If the weather allows, you can also see the Scaliger Castle, a rare example of a medieval fortification on a lake. We continue to Verona, where we take a panoramic walking tour of a city known for its famous Arena and as the home of Romeo and Juliet. Departure for Venice. Dinner and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

VENICE-MURANO-BURANO-VENICE

Breakfast. Walking tour of the Serenissima, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The historic center of Venice lies in the middle of a lagoon, with a total of 118 small islands separated by canals and linked by footbridges. We walk among monuments (outside visits) such as the Palazzo Ducale, the Bridge of Sighs and St. Mark's Basilica. In the afternoon, an excursion to the lagoon islands: Murano and Burano. From the boat we see the Church of San Giorgio Maggiore, the tip of Sant'Elena and the Lido, Venice's beach. We arrive in Murano, known for its glassmaking, and on the island of Burano, with fishermen's houses painted in bright colors. Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight.

5

DAY 5

VENICE-FLORENCE

Breakfast. Departure for Florence and a half-day walking tour: it starts at Piazza San Firenze, home of the Bargello and the Tribunale Fiorentino, once a church and now the seat of the Florence Court. We then reach Piazza della Signoria, the heart of the city since ancient times. There stand the Fountain of Neptune and the Palazzo Vecchio; nearby are the Piazzale degli Uffizi and the Ponte Vecchio. Dinner and overnight.

6

DAY 6

FLORENCE-CINQUE TERRE-PISA-FLORENCE

Breakfast. Excursion to the Cinque Terre. We reach La Spezia by coach. Depending on the weather and sea conditions, we continue by boat or by train to the Cinque Terre. Departure for Vernazza, overlooking terraced vineyards and old olive groves. Then departure for Monterosso, with narrow streets and a small square facing the sea. Return to La Spezia and Florence, with a stop in Pisa to see (outside visits) the Leaning Tower. We continue to Florence. Dinner and overnight. (Part of the trip is by ferry, but if weather and sea conditions do not allow boarding, the Operator decides and the visit is made by train. Depending on the time available, the weather or visitor numbers at the time, the Operator guarantees a visit to only one Cinque Terre town: Vernazza or Monterosso.)

7

DAY 7

FLORENCE-SIENA-SAN GIMIGNANO-CHIANTI-FLORENCE

Breakfast. Departure for the medieval city of Siena. Walk through the city, with outside visits to the marble cathedral and to Piazza del Campo, home of the Palio di Siena, a horse race held twice a year. Free time to keep exploring Siena on your own. In the afternoon, departure for the walled town of San Gimignano, with Romanesque and Gothic monuments. Departure for the Chianti region to see the Tuscan countryside. Return to Florence. Dinner and overnight.

8

DAY 8

FLORENCE-ASSISI-ROME

Breakfast. Departure for Assisi, a pilgrimage destination. Lunch. We walk through the medieval streets and visit the Basilicas of St. Clare and St. Francis. Departure for Rome. Overnight.

9

DAY 9

ROME

Breakfast. Group transfer (with other participants) from the hotel in Rome to the airport. End of services.
