About the trip

Ten days across India and Nepal: Delhi, Jaipur and Agra, then Kathmandu, with a Spanish-speaking guide. The itinerary includes the Delhi-Kathmandu-Delhi flight, seven World Heritage Sites in the Kathmandu Valley and dinners at the hotels.

What you will experience

- Old Delhi by rickshaw, Raj Ghat, Gurdwara Bangla Sahib and Qutub Minar
- Amber Fort, Maharaja's Palace, Jantar Mantar and Hawa Mahal in Jaipur
- Taj Mahal and Red Fort in Agra
- Swayambhunath Stupa and Patan Durbar Square, in the Kathmandu Valley
- Pashupatinath Temple, Boudhanath Stupa and the medieval city of Bhaktapur

Day by day

1

DAY 1

DELHI

Arrival in Delhi on an international flight. Our Spanish-speaking representative meets the group at the airport, with assistance and a transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

DELHI

Breakfast. Departure to visit Old Delhi, with a rickshaw ride through the streets of the neighborhood. Next, a visit to Raj Ghat, a park that holds the cenotaph, a marble platform where Mahatma Gandhi was cremated after his assassination. The visit continues through the government buildings and the India Gate, a stone triumphal arch 42 m high, inscribed with the names of the 90,000 Indian army soldiers killed in World War I. Panoramic drive through the parliament area and the president's residence. Later, a visit to the Sikh temple Gurdwara Bangla Sahib, the most important Sikh temple in Delhi, visited every day by thousands of people of all religions. Last, the Qutub Minar, a World Heritage Site and one of the oldest monuments of the first city of Delhi, whose construction began in 1199. Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

DELHI / JAIPUR (270 KM, APPROX. 5 H)

Breakfast. Departure by road to Jaipur. Arrival in Jaipur. In the afternoon, a visit that includes the Birla Hindu temple and the Patrika Gate, a colorful gateway very popular with young people. Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

JAIPUR / AMBER / JAIPUR

Breakfast. Excursion to Amber Fort, with an elephant ride up (subject to availability) and a jeep ride down. The fort was built by the Mughal kings to defend the Citadel. The complex is a group of buildings, including a palace and another fortress in a higher position. Visit to the Maharaja's Palace, the residence of the Jaipur royal family, a compound of palaces, gardens and other buildings, of which the seven-story Chandra Mahal stands out. Inside is the Maharaja Sawai Man Singh II Museum, with carpets, enameled objects, weapons, miniature paintings, cannons and the maharajas' clothing. Next, a visit to Jantar Mantar, the astronomical observatory, with a sundial 30 m high and other astronomical instruments of great interest. It is one of only five observatories of its kind. Nearby is the well-known Palace of the Winds, or Hawa Mahal, a facade built like a palace, used so that women could watch the processions and street life. Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

JAIPUR / AGRA (240 KM, APPROX. 5 H)

Breakfast. Departure to Agra, arrival and transfer to the hotel. Today the group visits one of the seven wonders of the world: the Taj Mahal (closed on Fridays), the monument that made Agra famous worldwide and became the symbol of India. The Taj Mahal is a mausoleum that Emperor Shah Jahan had built in 1631 in honor of his beloved wife Mumtaz Mahal, the lady of the Taj, who died in 1629 giving birth to their fourteenth child. The work, which involved 20,000 people, was only finished in 1653. It is the most representative example of Mughal architecture. Dinner and overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

AGRA / DELHI (200 KM, APPROX. 4 H)

Breakfast. Visit to the Red Fort, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1983. The construction dates from 1565 and was designed as a walled palace, surrounded by a deep moat of water. The fortress, reached through an imposing gate called Amar Singh, holds numerous palaces and stately buildings built by the Mughal emperor Akbar and used by successive governments of the Mughal Empire as a base of power. After the visit, departure to Delhi, arrival and transfer to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

DELHI / (NEPAL) KATHMANDU (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport to catch the flight to Kathmandu, arrival and transfer to the hotel. Kathmandu is the capital and largest city of Nepal, located in the valley of the same name, in the center of the country, near the Vishnumati River, at an altitude of 1,317 m. The old city is characterized by the large number of Buddhist and Hindu temples and palaces, most of them from the 17th century. The Kathmandu Valley has seven sites listed by UNESCO as World Heritage Sites. With the hippie movement, from the 1960s Kathmandu became a popular destination for tourists. It is also well known as a destination for trekking to Everest and for its nature. Dinner and overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

KATHMANDU / SWAYAMBHUNATH / DURBAR SQUARE / PATAN

Breakfast. In the morning, a visit to the old city of Kathmandu and the Swayambhunath temple, a stupa said to be 2,000 years old. The main structure is a hemisphere of brick and earth, which supports a conical spire with a copper pinnacle. It is one of the best places to see the whole city of Kathmandu. Then, a visit to Patan, which is in a World Heritage site. Patan's Durbar Square has many points of tourist interest and unique architecture. Krishna Mandir, the Bhimsen temple and the Hiranya Varna Mahabihar are just some of the temples, with paintings and carvings in wood and metal. The Temple of the Living Goddess, from which Kathmandu takes its name (believed to have been built with the wood of the trunk of a single tree). Durbar Square, with its group of temples dominated by the Hanuman Dhoka palace, the former palace of the Nepalese royalty. Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

KATHMANDU / PASHUPATINATH / BHAKTAPUR

Breakfast. Excursion to Bhaktapur, Pashupatinath and Bodnath. Pashupatinath is one of the holiest temples of the Hindu religion, dedicated to the god Shiva. The temple was built in the pagoda style. Only Hindus may enter, and behind it are the places used for cremations. Bhaktapur, also known as Bhadgaon, which means the city of devotees, is the place of medieval art and architecture. It is 14 km east of the city of Kathmandu, was founded in the 9th century and is shaped like a seashell. Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

10

DAY 10

KATHMANDU

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport to catch the flight to your next destination. End of services. The circuit can be combined with an extension to other destinations, such as Sri Lanka, the Maldives and Dubai.
