- Plaza of the Three Cultures, in Tlatelolco, and the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe
- Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon and the Avenue of the Dead, in Teotihuacan
- Cathedral of the Assumption, in Cuernavaca, built in 1520
- Church of Santa Prisca and the cobbled streets of Taxco, the silver city

Day by day

1

DAY 1

MEXICO CITY

Welcome at Mexico City "Benito Juárez" Airport (AICM) and transfer to the hotel. Accommodation.

2

DAY 2

MEXICO CITY / COYOACÁN / XOCHIMILCO

Breakfast. Today we head south of Mexico City to Coyoacán, one of the oldest neighborhoods in the city, famous for having been home to figures such as Leon Trotsky, Octavio Paz, Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo. Walk along cobblestone streets and picturesque squares, with the 16th-century Baroque mansions typical of the area. We continue to the National Autonomous University of Mexico, to see the architecture of the largest university in Latin America and, in the late afternoon, Xochimilco. We discover the mix of nature and culture of the place and board a trajinera (a small traditional boat decorated with flowers) to travel the network of canals and artificial islands declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. At the end, return to the hotel and accommodation.

3

DAY 3

MEXICO CITY / TLATELOLCO / BASILICA OF GUADALUPE / TEOTIHUACAN / MEXICO CITY

Breakfast. Departure for the Plaza of the Three Cultures, in the Tlatelolco district, where the three eras of the country are seen together: pre-Hispanic, colonial and modern. Short 15-minute stop for photos and explanation. Continue to the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the second most visited Catholic shrine in the world. Stay of about one hour, with an explanation of the interior of the Basilica, the old basilica and the most important chapels of the Shrine. We continue to Teotihuacan, "where men become gods". We visit the Temple of Quetzalcoatl, the Avenue of the Dead, the Pyramid of the Sun, the Pyramid of the Moon and the Temple of Quetzalpapalotl. Visit to a craft workshop for obsidian and other semiprecious stones used to make pre-Hispanic ornaments and personal adornments. Demonstration of the maguey plant, the tequila agave and henequen. Time for craft shopping. Return to Mexico City and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

MEXICO CITY / CUERNAVACA / TAXCO / MEXICO CITY

Breakfast. Departure for Cuernavaca, the "city of eternal spring", for its good weather all year round. Visit to the Cathedral of the Assumption, built in 1520, and to the central park. Continue to Taxco, a city known worldwide for its beautiful colonial architecture and its silver goods. Arrival and visit to a craft workshop. Time for lunch at the passenger's own expense. Continue to the city center to see the Church of Santa Prisca, with its Churrigueresque facade, paid for by José de la Borda in 1751, who is said to have declared: "God gives to Borda, Borda gives to God". Time to walk along cobblestone streets and alleys. Return to Mexico City and accommodation.

5

DAY 5

MEXICO CITY

Breakfast. At the scheduled time, transfer to the airport. End of our services.
