About the trip

Four days departing from New York to Niagara Falls, Philadelphia, Amish country and Washington DC. The itinerary includes a professional guide, 3 hotel nights with breakfast and an Amish buggy ride.

What you will experience

- Walk through Watkins Glen canyon, in the Finger Lakes region (in winter, Montour Falls)
- American side of Niagara Falls, with Goat Island and the night lighting
- Maid of the Mist boat (May to October) or Cave of the Winds and Power Vista in winter
- Philadelphia, with the Liberty Bell, Constitution Hall, Elfreth's Alley and the Rocky steps
- Amish buggy ride through the farms of Lancaster County and a visit to the Amish market
- Washington, with the Changing of the Guard at Arlington, the Capitol and the National Air and Space Museum

Day by day

1

DAY 1

NEW YORK / FINGER LAKES / NIAGARA FALLS

Departure heading north, passing through the beautiful Delaware Water Gap toward Watkins Glen State Park, in the heart of the Finger Lakes region. Walk through Watkins Glen gorge to see its waterfalls, before continuing to Niagara Falls, passing Seneca Lake. Arrival. (In winter, the visit to Watkins Glen State Park is replaced by Montour Falls.) Walk along the American side of the falls, including American Falls, Goat Island and its twin island. In the evening, the lighting of Niagara Falls. Overnight stay.

2

NIAGARA FALLS / NEW JERSEY

Breakfast. On the way out, the loud sound of the water at Niagara Falls. View of the falls from Horseshoe Falls and a ride aboard the Maid of the Mist to feel their power (May to October). In winter, when the Maid of the Mist does not run, a tour of the Power Vista hydroelectric plant, with a visit to the Cave of the Winds. At midday, departure heading south, into New York State, with a shopping stop at one of the largest outlets, with discounts at major brand and designer stores. Arrival in New Jersey. Overnight stay.

3

NEW JERSEY / PHILADELPHIA / WASHINGTON

Breakfast. Departure for Pennsylvania to the city of brotherly love, Philadelphia. On arrival, visit to the Liberty Bell, one of the symbols of American independence, Independence Square and Hall, Congress Hall and Elfreth's Alley, the oldest continuously inhabited residential street in the country. Panoramic tour of the financial district, the Benjamin Franklin Parkway and the historic center of Philadelphia. Before leaving the city, a pass by the famous Rocky steps. Continue to Lancaster County, where the Amish community lives. Ride through the farms in an authentic Amish buggy, to learn about a lifestyle without modern technology such as electricity, running water or household appliances. We will see how they have adapted renewable energy sources to make the farms self-sufficient. Visit also to the Amish market, where you can buy handmade products. In the afternoon, continue to Washington DC. Arrival and overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

WASHINGTON / NEW YORK

Breakfast. Visit to the Thomas Jefferson Memorial, surrounded by the Tidal Basin and its famous Japanese cherry trees. Continue to Arlington National Cemetery, where we watch the Changing of the Guard and visit the Kennedy family gravesite. Next stop: Capitol Hill, with the US Capitol and the White House, to understand the core of American government. Visit to the National Air and Space Museum, before continuing to the Lincoln, Martin Luther King, Korean War and Vietnam memorials. Return to New York, arrival and end of our services.
