About the trip

Six days in Mexico City and its surroundings, with a balloon flight over the Teotihuacan Valley at dawn, followed by a visit to the pyramids and the Basilica of Guadalupe. Coyoacán, Xochimilco, Cuernavaca and Taxco complete the itinerary, plus a free day.

What you will experience

- Coyoacán and a trajinera ride on the canals of Xochimilco, a World Heritage Site
- Balloon flight of about one hour at dawn over the Teotihuacan Valley, with a toast and breakfast
- Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon and the Avenue of the Dead, in Teotihuacan
- Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe, with the old basilica and the shrine chapels
- Cuernavaca Cathedral and the Church of Santa Prisca, in silver Taxco

Day by day

1

DAY 1

MEXICO CITY

Welcome at Mexico City "Benito Juárez" Airport (AICM) and transfer to the hotel. Accommodation.

2

DAY 2

MEXICO CITY / COYOACÁN / XOCHIMILCO

Breakfast. Today we head south of Mexico City to Coyoacán, one of the oldest neighborhoods in the city, known for having been home to figures such as León Trotsky, Octavio Paz, Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo. Walk along cobblestone streets and picturesque squares, with the 16th-century Baroque mansions typical of the area. The tour continues to the Autonomous University of Mexico, to see the architecture of the largest university in Latin America and, in the late afternoon, Xochimilco. Nature and culture come together there: board a trajinera (a small traditional boat decorated with flowers) to travel the network of canals and artificial islands declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. At the end, return to the hotel and accommodation.

3

DAY 3

MEXICO CITY / BALLOON FLIGHT / TEOTIHUACAN / BASILICA OF GUADALUPE / MEXICO CITY

Early in the morning, at 05:30, we drive to the take-off area for the balloon flight, at the time of greatest atmospheric stability. While the balloon is prepared, a coffee or a snack to get you going. After boarding, the certified pilot explains the details of the route and some safety measures, so you can relax and enjoy the flight. The balloon flight lasts about one hour and flies over the Teotihuacan Valley, with the best views of the most visited archaeological zone in Mexico. From above, a unique perspective of the City of the Gods, with views of the Pyramid of the Sun, the Palace of Quetzalpapalotl, the Avenue of the Dead, the Pyramid of the Moon and the Temple of Quetzalcoatl. To close the experience, we follow the worldwide tradition with a toast and a full buffet breakfast. All participants receive a certificate of the experience: the balloon flight baptism. The visit continues inside the Teotihuacan archaeological zone, "where men become gods". Visit to the Temple of Quetzalcoatl, the Avenue of the Dead, the Pyramid of the Sun, the Pyramid of the Moon and the Temple of Quetzal-Papalotl. Visit to a craft workshop for obsidian and other semiprecious stones, used to make pre-Hispanic ornaments and personal adornments. Demonstration of the maguey plant, the tequila agave and henequen. Time for craft shopping. Continue to the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the second most visited Catholic shrine in the world. Stay of about one hour, with an explanation of the inside of the Basilica, the old basilica and the main chapels of the shrine. Return to Mexico City and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

MEXICO CITY / CUERNAVACA / TAXCO / MEXICO CITY

Breakfast. Departure for Cuernavaca, the "city of eternal spring", for its good weather all year round. Visit to the Cathedral of the Assumption, built in 1520, and to the central park. Continue to Taxco, a city known worldwide for its beautiful colonial architecture and its silver goods. Arrival and visit to a craft workshop. Time for lunch at the passenger's own expense. Continue to the city center to see the beautiful Church of Santa Prisca, with its Churrigueresque facade. It was paid for by José de la Borda in 1751, to whom the phrase is attributed: God gives to Borda, Borda gives to God. Time to walk along cobblestone streets and attractive alleys. Return to Mexico City and accommodation.

5

DAY 5

MEXICO CITY

Breakfast. Free day for an optional tour or shopping at a modern mall. Accommodation.

6

DAY 6

MEXICO CITY

Breakfast. At the agreed time, transfer to the airport. End of our services.
