Day by day

1

DAY 1

GUATEMALA CITY

Arrival and assistance at the airport. Transfer to the hotel. Accommodation.

2

DAY 2

GUATEMALA CITY / ANTIGUA GUATEMALA

Breakfast. Optional tour of Guatemala City, which includes the National Palace, the metropolitan cathedral, the Central Plaza and the commercial and residential areas. At midday, transfer along the Inter-American highway to the colonial city of Antigua Guatemala. Free time for lunch on your own. In the afternoon, visit to the Central Plaza, the cathedral, the Palace of the Captains General, churches and monasteries. Accommodation.

3

DAY 3

ANTIGUA GUATEMALA / CHICHICASTENANGO / LAKE ATITLÁN / PANAJACHEL

Breakfast. Departure for Chichicastenango, known for its open-air market full of color, tradition and mysticism. Free time for shopping and to visit the surroundings. Continue to Panajachel, from where you can see one of the most beautiful lakes in the world, Lake Atitlán. Free time for lunch on your own and to stroll along the bohemian Santander street. Accommodation in Panajachel. We recommend having dinner at one of its many restaurants and enjoying the nightlife.

4

DAY 4

PANAJACHEL / GUATEMALA CITY. TOUR OF THE LAKE ATITLÁN VILLAGES

Breakfast. Visit to the villages of Lake Atitlán. The tour includes the village of San Juan, where you learn about the cultural, craft and artistic traditions of the Tz'utujil culture, as well as its religiosity and mysticism. The first stop is a cacao tour with a tasting, followed by the Mayan bee tour, also with a tasting, and finally the process of weaving, cotton spinning and natural dyeing. Continue to the village of San Pedro La Laguna, on the southwest shore of Lake Atitlán, at the foot of the San Pedro volcano, where you visit the church and the park, weather permitting. Last, a stop in Santiago Atitlán, with a demonstration of how the tocoyal is worn, the longest ribbon in Guatemala, which represents the 25-cent coin. Then a visit to a 16th-century church to learn about religious syncretism. The day ends with a short tour of the local painting, with the bird's-eye view and the ant's-eye view. At the end, transfer to Guatemala City. Accommodation.

5

DAY 5

GUATEMALA CITY
