Day by day

1

DAY 1

DELHI

Arrival in Delhi. Transfer to the hotel. Accommodation.

2

DAY 2

DELHI

Breakfast. Visit to the Lotus Temple, Gandhi's House and the Sikh Gurudwara Temple. Panoramic drive past the government buildings along Raj Path and the India Gate. In the afternoon, excursion to the Akshardham temple in Delhi, a complex made of pink stone and white marble. It has 234 columns carved in stone and more than 20,000 sculptures and statues of deities. Dinner and accommodation.

3

DAY 3

DELHI-JAIPUR

Breakfast. Departure by road for Jaipur, the “Pink City”, home to the iconic façade of the Hawa Mahal (Palace of the Winds). Arrival and hotel check-in. Around 15:30, departure to visit the Patrika Gate, a picturesque spot for photos, and the Birla Temple, with a photo stop at Albert Hall on the way. Dinner and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

JAIPUR-AMBER-JAIPUR

Breakfast. Visit to Amber, which offers a spectacular view from the road. Elephant ride up to the fortified palace. The palace and its pavilions are decorated with paintings and marble filigree. On the way back to Jaipur, visit to the Maharaja's Palace and its museums, and to the large instruments of the Jai Singh Observatory. Dinner and accommodation.

5

DAY 5

JAIPUR-MONKEY TEMPLE-ABHANERI-FATEHPUR SIKRI-AGRA

Breakfast. Departure for Agra, with stops along the way at the Monkey Temple, the Abhaneri stepwell and Fatehpur Sikri, an imperial capital frozen in time. It was the last city built by Akbar and was apparently abandoned for lack of water. Continuation to Agra, the city that shared the capital of the Mughal Empire with Delhi. Visit to Akbar's Church, built by Jesuit priests in 1600 at the invitation of Emperor Akbar. Dinner and accommodation.

6

DAY 6

AGRA-DELHI

Breakfast. Visit to the Taj Mahal (closed on Fridays), of unsurpassed architectural perfection. Then, visit to the Agra Red Fort, on the banks of the Yamuna River in the city center. It reflects Indian architecture under three Mughal emperors: Akbar, Jehangir and Shah Jahan. Departure by road for Delhi. Dinner and accommodation.

7

DAY 7

DELHI-PARO-THIMPHU (BHUTAN) (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport for the flight to Bhutan. Arrival in Paro, assistance and departure for Thimphu. The road descends through the valley to Chuzom (confluence), at the entrance of the valley, where the Paro and Thimphu rivers meet. Shortly before reaching Chuzom, visit to the Tschogang Lhakhang, the “temple of the excellent horse”. It is a private temple, built in the 15th century following the visit of Balaha, the excellent horse, a manifestation of Chenrezig, the compassionate Buddha. Lunch. In the afternoon, visit to the Textile Museum in Thimphu and to Simply Bhutan, the living museum. Dinner and accommodation.

8

DAY 8

THIMPHU

Stay on a full board basis. Departure for the visit to Thimphu, including: Tango Goemba, a monastery built by Lama Gyalwa in the 12th century. Buddha Point (Kuensel Phodrang), home to the largest statue of Buddha and the best view of the city of Thimphu. King’s Memorial Chorten, built by the third king of Bhutan to bring prosperity and peace. Exterior visit to the Trashichhoedzong, the seat of government in Thimphu, where the king and other officials work. Walk through the local market, for those who wish, and return to the hotel.

9

DAY 9

THIMPHU-PARO

Breakfast. Departure for Paro (2 hours), arrival and transfer to the hotel. Lunch. In the afternoon, visit to the Ta Dzong, originally built as a watchtower and now home to the National Museum. The extensive collection includes antique thangka paintings, textiles, weapons and armor, household objects and a wide variety of natural and historical objects. Dinner and accommodation.

10

DAY 10

PARO

Stay on a full board basis. Departure for the car park of the Tiger's Nest monastery, arrival and trek to the monastery (5 hours in total, up and down) for a visit on foot to the Taktsang monastery (Tiger's Nest). For those used to altitude, the climb to the temples takes about three hours at an average walking pace. On the way, a stop at a tea house for a refreshing drink and a great view of the monastery. The Taktsang monastery is one of the most venerated pilgrimage sites in the Himalayan world and has 13 sacred places. Lunch is served at a cafeteria. Return to the hotel. Dinner and accommodation.

11

DAY 11

PARO-DELHI (INDIA) (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport for the flight to the next destination, Delhi. On arrival in Delhi, passengers stay in transit for the connection to the flight to the next destination. End of services.
