2

DAY 2

DUBLIN

Breakfast. Free day in Dublin, capital of the Republic of Ireland, to explore the city at your own pace. You can walk through the main historic areas, see landmark buildings such as the Custom House and Dublin Castle, stroll through Phoenix Park or visit Trinity College and St. Patrick's Cathedral. Free time is also a chance to enjoy the local atmosphere, shop or visit a traditional Irish pub with live music. Accommodation.

DAY 3

DUBLIN-ATHLONE-GALWAY

Breakfast. Departure from Dublin at 8:00, with a short panoramic tour showing different areas of the city and the contrast between historic districts and more modern neighborhoods. We leave the capital heading for the west of Ireland, crossing the center of the country, through increasingly open and rural landscapes. The first stop is Athlone, practically at the geographic center of Ireland and crossed by the River Shannon, the longest in the country. This location has made the town a link between east and west since the Middle Ages. Highlights include Athlone Castle, built in the 13th century by the Normans and rebuilt several times, mainly after the siege of 1691 in the Williamite wars. There is also a lively riverside promenade and the local atmosphere typical of a town with a trading and river tradition. We continue to Galway, known as the "City of the Tribes", in reference to the fourteen merchant families of Anglo-Norman origin who dominated its political and economic life between the 14th and 17th centuries. On the west coast, on the shores of the Atlantic, Galway is today a cultural center, famous for its festivals, traditional music and youthful atmosphere. Dinner and accommodation.

4

DAY 4

GALWAY-LIMERICK-CORK

Breakfast. Departure for the Cliffs of Moher, crossing The Burren, a large stretch of protected limestone landscape whose Gaelic name means "rocky place" and describes the barren, rugged terrain facing the Atlantic. On arrival, we see the cliffs, over 200 meters high and 8 kilometers long. Free time to walk and visit the visitor center. We continue to Limerick, with free time to stroll and have lunch by the River Shannon. We then drive on to County Cork, known as the "Golden Vale", a region of landscapes, culture and food, with a historical and industrial tradition tied to barley and whiskey. In Cork, a panoramic tour of landmarks such as St. Anne's Church in Shandon, the Clock of Lies and the Protestant cathedral of St. Fin Barre. We will also see how the city, crossed by several channels, developed into one of Ireland's main trading ports. Accommodation.

5

DAY 5

CORK-CASHEL-DUBLIN

Breakfast. Departure for the Rock of Cashel, a fortress that rises above the Irish plain and offers wide views of the landscape. Built before the Norman invasion, it was later handed over to the Church and is linked to local traditions about St. Patrick, patron saint of Ireland. Visit to the fortress and walk through its medieval streets, with their historic and cultural value. We continue to Dublin, arriving at lunchtime. Free time in this cosmopolitan city to visit museums and art galleries, stroll the lively streets or do your last shopping of the tour, with a wide choice of crafts, clothing, books and, of course, Irish whiskey. Accommodation.

6

DAY 6
