About the trip

Six nights in Turkey: four in Istanbul and two in Cappadocia, with a domestic flight between the two regions. The itinerary stops in Ankara and at Salt Lake on the way to Cappadocia and includes two dinners. Optional excursions fill the free days in Istanbul.

What you will experience

- Istanbul with an optional boat ride on the Bosphorus and a visit to Topkapi, the Blue Mosque and the Grand Bazaar
- Panoramic tour of Ankara, with the Mausoleum of the founder of the Republic
- Stop at Salt Lake and a visit to a Silk Road caravanserai
- Göreme Open-Air Museum, with rock-cut chapels and 13th-century frescoes
- Valleys and fairy chimneys of Cappadocia and a visit to the underground city

Day by day

1

DAY 1

ISTANBUL

Arrival at Istanbul International Airport (IST). (Go to the meeting point at exit door 9.) Transfer to the hotel. Overnight.

2

DAY 2

ISTANBUL

Breakfast. Free day, with the option of the optional excursion "Pearls of the Golden Horn and Bosphorus", lunch included. The tour passes through Balat, the old Jewish quarter, and the Greek quarter of Fener, with views of the "Golden Horn", and continues to the Cathedral of St. George, seat of the Greek Orthodox patriarchate. Next, the Suleymaniye Mosque, named for Suleiman the Magnificent and designed by the Ottoman architect Mimar Sinan, with the largest dome among the mosques of Istanbul. Then the Spice Bazaar, known for its colors and aromas, the place to buy teas, herbs, dried fruit, typical sweets and, of course, spices. The tour ends with a boat cruise on the Bosphorus, the strait that divides the city between Europe and Asia, with views of Ottoman fortresses, palaces, waterfront houses and the bridges that link the two sides of the city. Overnight.

Meals included: breakfast

3

DAY 3

ISTANBUL

Breakfast. Free day. Option of the optional excursion "Treasures of Constantinople", lunch included, through the historic center, where traces of the different empires that shaped today's Istanbul remain: the Roman Hippodrome, center of social life in Constantinople for thousands of years, where you also find the Obelisk of Theodosius, the Obelisk of Constantine and the German Fountain. The Blue Mosque, with more than 20,000 handmade ceramic tiles brought from Iznik. Panoramic view of Hagia Sophia (interior visit with a supplement, please ask), built in the year 537, which has served as a church, a mosque and a museum. From the outside, the structure impresses with its enormous dome, a technical feat in its day and still one of the largest domes in the world. Then Topkapi Palace, home of the Ottoman sultans for more than 400 years, with the royal gardens, kitchens and treasure rooms. Visit to the Harem, where the sultan's wives and children lived, known for its lavish decoration. Continuation to the Church of Hagia Irene (Aya Irini), a Byzantine church that never became a mosque. The tour ends at the Grand Bazaar, one of the oldest and largest covered markets in the world, where bargaining is a tradition. Overnight.

Meals included: breakfast

4

DAY 4

ISTANBUL-ANKARA-CAPPADOCIA

Breakfast in "lunch-box" format. Early departure, around 06:00, for Ankara. Arrival and panoramic visit of the capital of Turkey, including the Mausoleum of the founder of the Republic. On the way to Cappadocia, photo stop at Salt Lake and visit to a caravanserai, a lodging from the Silk Road era. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

5

DAY 5

CAPPADOCIA

Breakfast. Departure at 08:00 to explore the region, with an original landscape formed by volcanic lava more than 3 million years ago. The day starts at the Goreme Open-Air Museum, a monastery with chapels carved into volcanic rock and decorated with 13th-century frescoes. It continues through valleys with "otherworldly" landscapes, with views of the famous "fairy chimneys", a symbol of the region's geological formations. Stop to enjoy the wide panoramic view of some of the volcanic rock valleys with spectacular shapes. Continuation to the underground city of Cappadocia, one of the many engineering works built by the ancient local communities to protect themselves from attacks throughout history. At the end of the route, visit to a carpet and gemstone center. Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight. Option of optional excursions, such as the "Turkish Night", with folk dances in a cave, the "Jeep Safari" through the valleys of the region or the early-morning "Balloon Ride", to see the landscapes from above.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

6

DAY 6

CAPPADOCIA-ISTANBUL (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport for the flight to Istanbul. Arrival and transfer to the hotel. Overnight.

Meals included: breakfast

7

DAY 7

ISTANBUL

Breakfast. At the agreed time, transfer to Istanbul International Airport (IST). End of services.

Meals included: breakfast
