About the trip

Eight days and seven nights through the imperial cities of Morocco, from Casablanca to Marrakesh. A minivan with a Spanish-speaking driver is at your disposal throughout the itinerary, and local guides lead the city visits.

In Casablanca, the tour covers the Habous district and the Hassan II Mosque, seen from the outside. On the way to Fez, the itinerary stops in Meknes, with the Bab Mansour Gate, and at the Roman ruins of Volubilis. Fez has a full day of visits to the medieval medina and the souks.

After Rabat, with the Hassan Tower and the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, the journey reaches Marrakesh: the Menara Garden, the Saadian Tombs, the Bahia Palace and Djemaa El Fna square. Days 6 and 7 in Marrakesh are free, and you can stay at La Mamounia for a supplement.

Visiting: Casablanca, Meknes, Volubilis, Fez, Rabat and Marrakesh.

What you will experience

- Quality hotels, a full sightseeing program and half board
- Option to stay at the Hotel La Mamounia, one of the most highly regarded luxury hotels in Marrakesh, for a supplement
