Day by day

1

DAY 1

WROCLAW

Arrival at Wroclaw airport and unassisted transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

WROCLAW

Breakfast. Tour of the city, at the foot of the Sudetes, on the banks of the Oder River. This charming town is made up of twelve islands and more than a hundred bridges, which earned it the nickname of the Venice of Poland. The tour starts in the heart of the city, at the Market Square, with its colorful houses, the Town Hall and the famous 14th-century altarists' houses known as "Hansel and Gretel". On the route, we pass the University of Wroclaw, the oldest in Poland and one of the oldest in Central Europe, founded in 1702. The walk ends on Ostrów Tumski island, the oldest part of Wroclaw and one of the most important sacred architecture complexes in Poland and Europe, where the Cathedral of Saint John the Baptist stands out. Free afternoon to keep exploring the city on your own. Overnight stay.
