Day by day

1

DAY 1

PARIS / ROUEN / HONFLEUR / CAEN

Departure at 7:15 am from central Paris toward the Normandy motorway. Arrival in Rouen. Guided walking tour of the historic center, home to, among other places, the majestic Notre-Dame Cathedral. Rouen has a peculiar charm, with medieval alleys, lively pedestrian streets, half-timbered houses and the famous Gros Horloge, the great clock that symbolizes the city. Many Impressionist painters found inspiration in the splendor of this Norman city, Monet among them. We continue to Honfleur, with free time to explore this port town of picturesque streets and colorful houses, which has preserved a rich historical and artistic heritage. We then head to the Normandy beaches, emblematic sites of the Second World War and symbols of the 1944 Allied landing. We start with the American military cemetery at Colleville-sur-Mer. You can see this symbolic site of the Battle of Normandy, on the cliffs that overlook Omaha Beach. We continue to Caen. Dinner and accommodation.

DAY 2

CAEN / SAINT-MALO / MONT SAINT-MICHEL / PARIS

Breakfast. Departure for Saint-Malo, a Breton city with a rich historical heritage and many protected monuments: the ramparts, the castle, St. Vincent Cathedral and the National Fort. Free time. We continue to the guided visit of Mont Saint-Michel, which marks the border between the regions of Normandy and Brittany. We will see the "Wonder of the West", which rises on a rocky promontory from the Middle Ages, surrounded by a splendid bay. At the entrance is the King's Gate, with a drawbridge, leading to the Grande Rue, the street with the main museums, shops and medieval houses. We climb the Grand Degré, the staircase leading to the majestic 8th-century Benedictine abbey. Free time to try the delicious crepes and buy some souvenirs. Departure back to Paris. Arrival at about 9:15 pm. End of services.
