Ten days in New Zealand, from Auckland to Queenstown, passing through Waitomo, Rotorua, Lake Tekapo and Te Anau. The itinerary includes a Milford Sound cruise, 4 lunches, 2 dinners and a bilingual guide.

What you will experience

- Sky Tower, Auckland Museum and the black sand beach of Muriwai
- Boat ride on the Waitomo River in the Glowworm Caves, lit by glowworms
- Te Puia in Rotorua, with geysers, Maori dances and a typical dinner
- Lake Tekapo, the Church of the Good Shepherd and dinner at the home of New Zealand hosts
- Milford Sound cruise through Fiordland National Park, with lunch on board
- Arrowtown and the Skyline gondola to Bob's Peak, in Queenstown

Day by day

1

DAY 1

AUCKLAND

Arrival in Auckland. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay. Rest of the day free.

2

DAY 2

AUCKLAND

Breakfast. In the morning, a visit to the West Coast, especially Muriwai Regional Park, whose main feature is its black sand coast. The beach is very popular with surfers. Next, the Auckland Museum, with an interesting collection of Maori and Polynesian art and relics. Then, a visit to the Parnell district, with a walk through one of the oldest neighborhoods in Auckland, and we continue to Mission Bay. We return to the city center to visit the Auckland Viaduct and the Sky Tower, Auckland's tower, 328 meters high. From there, the group enjoys a unique view of the city and its two bays: Waitemata and Manukau. Return to the hotel. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

AUCKLAND / WAITOMO / ROTORUA

Breakfast. Departure south of Auckland through the Bombay Hills, crossing the rich farming region of Waikato. On arrival, a guided visit through more than 250 meters of underground landscapes. The highlight is a boat ride on the Waitomo River, where the group sees thousands of glowing glowworm lights that form the Glowworm Cave. At the end of the visit, a traditional New Zealand-style barbecue at a local restaurant. Continuation to Rotorua. In the afternoon, a visit to Te Puia, a thermal reserve and Maori cultural center, home to the New Zealand Maori Arts and Crafts Institute. In the reserve, the group sees several deposits of silica and boiling mud and walks a route past the geysers. Next, the group is welcomed in the traditional way and watches a demonstration of Maori dances and songs. Then, a dinner typical of Maori culture. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

ROTORUA / CHRISTCHURCH (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. In the morning, a visit to the Waimangu thermal reserve, a large valley with abundant geothermal activity, where you can see the effect of the 1886 eruption of Mount Tarawera. After the visit, transfer to Rotorua airport (airfare not included) for the flight to Christchurch. On arrival, a short walk through the city center. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

CHRISTCHURCH / LAKE TEKAPO

Breakfast. We explore the surroundings of Christchurch and, in mid-morning, continue to Lake Tekapo, an alpine lake with crystal-clear turquoise water surrounded by mountains, where the group can visit the iconic Church of the Good Shepherd. In the afternoon, New Zealand hosts (kiwis) welcome the group into their home, with a home-cooked dinner and the famous New Zealand dessert, the Pavlova. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

LAKE TEKAPO / TE ANAU

Breakfast. On today's route, the group sees impressive views of Mount Cook, the highest peak in the country (3,750 m), and turquoise glacial lakes. We continue through the MacKenzie Country area. Visit to the "Bungy Bridge" (jump not included), where the well-known bungee jump was born. Next, a visit to a winery in the Central Otago region, with a tasting of locally produced wines and lunch included. Departure to Te Anau. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

TE ANAU / MILFORD SOUND / QUEENSTOWN

Breakfast. Full-day excursion to Milford Sound (subject to weather conditions), through Fiordland National Park. A boat ride takes the group toward the Tasman Sea, to appreciate the magnitude of the fjord, Mitre Peak and Bowen Falls. Lunch included during the crossing. After the cruise, travel to Queenstown by coach. You can also return by small plane or helicopter (extra cost and booking on site, because of weather conditions), flying over this park of high waterfalls, forest, coasts, rivers and valleys until you reach the city. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

QUEENSTOWN

Breakfast. Today we take a half-day tour of the Queenstown area, with a visit to the traditional mining village of Arrowtown. Return to Queenstown to ride the Skyline gondola up to the top of Bob's Peak, with spectacular panoramic views of the region. Farewell lunch and the rest of the afternoon free. Overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

QUEENSTOWN

Accommodation and breakfast. Free day for optional activities.

10

DAY 10

QUEENSTOWN

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. End of services.

-  MINIMUM OF 2 PEOPLE: PRICES FOR A SINGLE TRAVELER ON REQUEST ***
- The ROT/CHC domestic flight must be booked. Rotorua-Christchurch flight: price on request, GST included, with 2 bags of 23 kg (airfare subject to increases). (Includes Insurance Levy, Domestic Passenger Levy and Government Security Levy).  IMPORTANT. This fare is subject to seat availability and applies if the booking is made 50 days or more before the circuit departure. The airline requires e-tickets to be issued 50 days in advance; once they are issued, the same fare cannot be guaranteed, and availability and a quote for the ROT/CHC flight must be requested from the airline. The operator can book this flight, but it must be the same one booked by the correspondent in New Zealand. This is very important to ensure the group operates correctly. The ROT/CHC flight to book is NZ5785 ROT/CHC (departing around 12:10 pm). If another flight is used for any reason, we will let you know. Clients are not allowed to travel on a different flight from the one booked by the correspondent in New Zealand (the only viable option for this leg). Reconfirm the flight at the time of booking. Queenstown/Auckland flight: price on request, GST included, with 2 bags of 23 kg (airfare subject to increases). The Milford Sound excursion depends on weather conditions. If it is cancelled, the Doubtful Sound excursion will be offered, with an additional supplement paid directly to the tour company. There is no seat block on this excursion, so it depends on availability. If none is available, we will book the Walter Peak excursion in Queenstown.
