- Whisky distillery in Pitlochry, tasting included
- Stirling Castle and Edinburgh Castle, tickets included
- Jedburgh Abbey, Durham, York and the university city of Cambridge on the way back to London

Day by day

1

DAY 1

LONDON

Arrival at London international airport (Heathrow). Shared transfer to the hotel. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

LONDON

Overnight stay and breakfast. Departure from the hotel at 7:50 am for a panoramic city visit, passing through the districts of Westminster, Kensington, Mayfair and Belgravia. Photo stops at Parliament, Westminster Abbey, Big Ben, the London Eye, the Royal Albert Hall and the Albert Memorial. We also see the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace (whenever there is a ceremony that day). We drive through the West End, the theater and restaurant district, Piccadilly Circus and Trafalgar Square, and the cultural areas: Natural History Museum, Victoria & Albert, Science Museum and National Gallery. The visit ends at Buckingham Palace, around 11:45 am. Rest of the day free to keep exploring this city.

3

DAY 3

LONDON / OXFORD / STRATFORD / CHESTER / LIVERPOOL

Breakfast. Departure at 7:50 am heading northwest to the university city of Oxford, where we take a short walk to see its colleges. Oxford University is the oldest in the English-speaking world. From Oxford we continue to Stratford-upon-Avon, a charming town on the banks of the River Avon and birthplace of the playwright William Shakespeare. We make a panoramic visit here. Stop for lunch. We continue north to the walled city of Chester for a walking tour. Continuation to Liverpool, birthplace of the Beatles. Panoramic visit. Dinner and overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

LIVERPOOL / LAKE DISTRICT / GRETNA GREEN / GLASGOW

Breakfast. Departure heading north through the Lake District, a source of inspiration for English poets and writers. The route follows Lake Grasmere to the border with Scotland, through Gretna Green. Free time. Once in Scotland, we continue north to Glasgow, with a short visit to one of the largest cities in the United Kingdom, with the famous Buchanan Street, known for both its Victorian architecture and its shops. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

GLASGOW / LOCH LOMOND / FORT WILLIAM / LOCH NESS / INVERNESS / HIGHLANDS

Breakfast. Departure along the shores of Loch Lomond to enter the Scottish Highlands, land of famous family clans. We pass the mountain landscapes of Glencoe and arrive at Fort William, where there is free time for lunch. In the afternoon, we follow the shores of Loch Ness in search of its ancient inhabitant, "Nessie". Optionally, a boat ride on Loch Ness is available. Then a visit to the ruins of Urquhart Castle. We leave along the shores of the loch toward Inverness, where, on arrival, we take a panoramic tour. Dinner and overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

HIGHLANDS / PITLOCHRY / STIRLING / EDINBURGH

Breakfast. We continue through mid-mountain landscapes to Pitlochry, where we visit a whisky distillery and learn the centuries-old method of making the drink, with a tasting included. We continue to Callander and Stirling, at the heart of Scottish history and witness to fierce battles during the Wars of Independence. The Battle of Stirling Bridge (known from the film Braveheart), in 1297, was William Wallace's greatest victory and made him the undisputed leader of the resistance against the English. We visit Stirling Castle, set on a rocky promontory with impressive views. Free time. Continuation to Edinburgh, where we make a panoramic visit of the city before reaching the hotel. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

EDINBURGH

Overnight stay and breakfast. Free day to enjoy Edinburgh, with admission to Edinburgh Castle included to visit it on your own. You can walk the historic center and the Royal Mile, see the elegant New Town and Princes Street, or visit places such as Holyrood Palace, St. Giles' Cathedral and the National Gallery of Scotland. Declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the city also stands out for its intense cultural life, especially during the famous Edinburgh Festival, in August.

8

DAY 8

EDINBURGH / JEDBURGH / DURHAM / YORK / HARROGATE

Breakfast. Departure heading south, crossing the rolling landscapes of the Lowlands, to Jedburgh, a former scene of border fighting, where we see the remains of its Benedictine abbey. The route continues to the historic city of Durham, dominated by its cathedral. Free time. We continue to York, a beautiful city of Roman origin, with a long history tied to the Vikings and Saxons. Free time to walk its charming streets and admire the exterior of the largest cathedral in northern Europe. Dinner and overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

HARROGATE / CAMBRIDGE / LONDON

Breakfast. Departure heading south to the charming university city of Cambridge, which rivals Oxford in education, sport, beauty and architectural richness. There is free time for lunch and to stroll through its colleges and historic streets. We continue to London. Overnight stay.

10

DAY 10

LONDON

Overnight stay and breakfast. Free day for personal activities.

11

DAY 11

LONDON

Breakfast. At the agreed time, shared transfer to Heathrow airport. End of services.
