What you will experience

- Panoramic tour of Toronto and Niagara-on-the-Lake, the former capital of Upper Canada
- Boat ride to the base of the Niagara Falls (May to October)
- Boat ride through the Thousand Islands archipelago (May to October)
- Ottawa with the Rideau Canal and Parliament, on the way to Mont-Tremblant
- Sugar shack with a maple syrup tasting and the walled city of Quebec
- Old Montreal, Saint Joseph's Oratory and the Mount Royal lookout

Day by day

1

DAY 1

TORONTO

Welcome to Toronto airport and transfer to the hotel. Room check-in time is from 4:00 pm. Rest of the day free. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

TORONTO-NIAGARA FALLS

American breakfast. Departure for the panoramic city tour: city hall, the provincial Parliament, the University of Toronto, the bohemian Yorkville district and the area of the baseball stadium and the CN Tower, where we stop for photos. Then we continue to Niagara-on-the-Lake, a beautiful town and former capital of Upper Canada. Free time for lunch. Later we continue along the wine route to the famous Niagara Falls, where we sail on the Niagara River in a boat that takes us right up to the falls (May to October; off season, we visit the scenic tunnels). Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

NIAGARA FALLS-THOUSAND ISLANDS-OTTAWA (HULL)

Continental breakfast. On the way to Canada's federal capital, we follow the Trans-Canada Highway and stop for a boat ride in the beautiful summer resort region of the Thousand Islands archipelago, where Lake Ontario becomes the Saint Lawrence River (May to October; off season, we visit the Museum of History in Ottawa). After lunch (not included), we continue to Ottawa. We enter the city past the experimental farm and along the picturesque Rideau Canal and its residential districts. We take an orientation tour of the city before reaching the hotel. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

OTTAWA-MONT-TREMBLANT

American breakfast. We leave the hotel to continue the city visit, passing Parliament, the residences of the Governor General and the Prime Minister, and the residential area. The changing of the guard at Parliament can only be seen in July and August. In the free time, we suggest visiting one of the museums that Canada's federal capital offers. After lunch (not included), we leave for the Laurentian Mountains, where most of the ski resorts in eastern Canada are, attractive in both summer and winter. Arrival in the late afternoon and free time in Mont-Tremblant. Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

MONT-TREMBLANT-QUEBEC

American breakfast. Early in the morning, we leave for Quebec. On the way, we stop at one of the region's typical sugar shacks, where you can taste caramelized maple syrup and learn how it is made. On arrival in Quebec, we begin our panoramic tour. After lunch (not included), we continue the city visit, where we see the battlefields, Cap Diamant, the Joan of Arc garden, the Grande Allée, the Parliament of the province of Quebec, the walled city, the St. Louis Gate, the Place d'Armes, the Château Frontenac area, the Hôtel de Ville, the old port and the Place Royale. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

QUEBEC

American breakfast. Free day for personal activities or optional excursions. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

QUEBEC-MONTREAL

American breakfast. Departure for Montreal, the cultural and fashion capital. Canada also stands out for its nightlife and gastronomy. Panoramic visit of Montreal: McGill University, the Golden Square Mile, Saint Joseph's Oratory, Mount Royal (stop at a viewpoint) and the Latin Quarter. After lunch (not included), we continue the panoramic visit through Old Montreal, passing Place d'Armes, Notre-Dame Basilica (entrance not included), the old port, Place Jacques-Cartier and the city hall building. Rest of the afternoon free. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

MONTREAL

American breakfast. Free day for personal activities in this city. We suggest a visit to underground Montreal, to the botanical garden, recognized as one of the most important in the world, or to one of the public markets, where farmers and artisans sell their products. Overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

MONTREAL

American breakfast. At the scheduled time, transfer to the airport and end of our services.
