- Larco Museum in Lima, with its open storage facility
- Túcume Pyramids Valley and the Royal Tombs of the Lord of Sipán Museum, in Lambayeque
- Huaca El Brujo, in Magdalena de Cao, with the tattooed mummy of the Lady of Cao
- Huaca of the Moon and Huaca of the Rainbow, Moche and Chimú temples in Trujillo
- Huanchaco, with its totora reed boats, and the Chan Chan citadel, with the Nik-An palace

Day by day

1

DAY 1

LIMA

Arrival in Lima. Welcome and assistance on the transfer to the hotel. Overnight.

2

DAY 2

LIMA-CHICLAYO (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. An exclusive, intensive tour of Lima's historic center takes us to see and admire the architectural relics of old Lima, recognized by UNESCO as a World Cultural Heritage Site. The Convent of Santo Domingo marks the start of this experience. Built at the founding of Lima, it is where the University of San Marcos, the oldest in the Americas, was founded. Inside, highlights include the choir, with the oldest choir stalls in the country, and the library, with 25,000 books, some printed in the 15th century, of incalculable historic value. The convent also holds the remains of Saint Martin de Porres, Saint John Macías and Saint Rose of Lima. Crossing the Plaza Mayor, the Government Palace and the Municipal Palace, we enter the cathedral, one of the jewels of Lima's history, with works of art that bring us closer to colonial Lima. We leave the center for the Larco Museum, where we get a clear view of the cultures that populated ancient Peru. The gold pieces, textiles and erotic ceramics stand out, part of a collection that introduces us to the worldview of the ancient Peruvians. During the visit, the museum's storage area is open to appreciate the artistic expressions recorded in its ceramics. Transfer to the airport. Flight to Chiclayo (airfare not included). Arrival, assistance and transfer to the hotel. Overnight.

3

DAY 3

CHICLAYO

Breakfast. We visit the Valley of the Pyramids, in Túcume, an impressive urban center and the most important of its time, only 33 km from Chiclayo. The legend of the god Naylamp and Queen Ceterni, who came from the sea, is still alive among the locals. In the city of Lambayeque is the Royal Tombs of the Lord of Sipán Museum, built to resemble the original tomb and home to treasures of gold, silver and precious stones of unique beauty. A visit that is hard to forget and a one-of-a-kind museum in South America. Lunch at a restaurant serving typical northern food. Return to Chiclayo. Overnight.

4

DAY 4

CHICLAYO-TRUJILLO

Breakfast. Departure for Trujillo in private transport. On the way, we take a detour through the sugarcane fields of the north to reach the small village of Magdalena de Cao. We enter the archaeological zone, where we find the Huaca El Brujo, a beautiful site where the tattooed mummy of the Lady of Cao was found, along with clothing, offerings and jewelry that accompanied her burial. The huaca is still being studied by archaeologists, and you can see its different construction stages and levels. Everything we see transports us to an ancient world ruled by beliefs and territorial dominance. The mummy of the Lady of Cao can be seen with her tattoos, a reflection of her power. Lunch. Continue by road to Trujillo. Arrival and transfer to the hotel. Overnight.

5

DAY 5

TRUJILLO

Breakfast. In the morning, visit to the impressive Huaca de la Luna, the center of power in the Trujillo valley in the Moche period. We enter the site museum, which holds numerous objects found inside. Inside the huaca, we see the depictions of gods drawn in high relief on the walls of this ancient temple. Our next stop is the Huaca Arco Iris, or Dragon, of the Chimú culture. Continue to Huanchaco, an old fishermen's cove, where you can see the traditional boats called totora reed horses, which keep alive the thousand-year-old tradition of artisanal fishing. Lunch in Huanchaco. In the afternoon, visit to the ancient citadel of Chan Chan. We enter the Nik-An palace, in the southwestern part of Chan Chan, walking through its ceremonial plazas, shrines, reservoirs, granaries, cemeteries and other spaces. Overnight.

6

DAY 6

TRUJILLO-LIMA (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. Flight to Lima (airfare not included). Arrival. End of services.
