-  MINIMUM OF 2 PEOPLE: PRICES FOR A SINGLE TRAVELER ON REQUEST ***
- For each client who takes a safari on this program, 1 USD per day will be donated to the foundation "The Kobo Trust Foundation". In Kenya, bringing in and using any type of plastic bag is prohibited. Using this type of bag can result in heavy fines. Ivory is completely prohibited in the countries of East Africa, so avoid entering these countries with any amount, however small. This also applies to any type of African animal product. On arrival, passengers receive a pin from the Kawangware Street Children Project association, which represents a contribution from clients to the development of local communities, luggage tags and a safari hat. At The Ark, only small overnight bags are allowed; the rest of the luggage is stored at the base hotel (Aberdares Country Club) and collected the next day. The stay at the Aberdare hotel is without a guide, since wildlife viewing is done from the lodging itself. On regular circuits in Spanish, if the departure has more than one vehicle, the guide will switch cars along the way (in Kenya, 1 guide is included for every 2 vehicles). Only dollars issued after 2006 are accepted in Kenya; earlier ones are not accepted. Luggage must be in soft bags (not hard suitcases, which are a real problem for transport) and is limited to 15 kg per person. Prices were calculated on the date the program was issued; if the exchange rate, fuel or other energy sources, or the level of taxes and fees on travel services increase, the price may be increased. Airport, city and intercity transfers are made by minibus or bus. A window seat is not guaranteed. Transfers on regular programs are in shared vehicles. Transfers in Kenyan cities are made in 7-seat minibuses, unless otherwise indicated. Safaris are made in 4x4 vehicles (long-wheelbase, 7 seats, or short-wheelbase, 4 seats, Land Cruiser or Land Rover, depending on the size of the group). The vehicles have a removable roof for better wildlife viewing and for photography on photo safaris. So that each traveler has a guaranteed window seat, there are at most 7 passengers in the safari vehicle. On safaris in national parks and reserves, we do as many safaris as daylight allows, to make the most of the visit to the reserve. The safari for each overnight stay or park is indicated in each itinerary. On days when clients have a full day in the park, we offer two safaris: a dawn safari, from 06:30 to 08:45, or a morning safari, from 07:30 to 09:45, and the afternoon safari for each option. The afternoon safari is usually between 16:00 and 18:00. Check possible supplements depending on availability in the quoted airfare classes and special periods. Airport taxes may vary; the price will be reconfirmed when the air tickets are issued. Check supplements and mandatory dinners at Christmas or on special dates. No vaccination is mandatory for this trip. A yellow fever vaccination certificate is required for travelers over one year old coming from countries with a risk of yellow fever transmission. We recommend keeping the official vaccination schedule up to date. The Spanish Ministry of Health and Consumer Affairs, in line with the WHO, recommends keeping the vaccination schedule up to date and a series of vaccines, including hepatitis A and B, tetanus-polio, typhoid fever, Japanese encephalitis and influenza. Regular safaris with one or more nights in Nairobi include a lunch or dinner at a steakhouse (which may be replaced by another meal, depending on the itinerary), with the corresponding transfers included. It usually takes place on the first or last day of the safari. Rooms and tents in hotels, lodges or camps are guaranteed to be available from 12:00. Before that time, availability depends on the property. Use of the rooms is guaranteed until 10:00 in all hotels, lodges and tented camps, unless a day-use room or an extended check-out is booked in advance. Day-use rooms (until 18:00) in city or coastal hotels can be booked for about 75% of the hotel's nightly rate.
